Thomas Larmel Allen transferred by Deed dated July 15th 1793, conveyed to Amos Jackson & As heirs in common, County lying on the south side of Cumberland River as follows fully appears by a Deed now in the attachment of Jackson vs. Allen, July 15th 1793, three hundred and twenty acres of land tract No. 2 in Jackson County to H. M. Donelson by D. L. dated September 25th 1793, qd. on the back of the last mentioned Deed is a written Deed from Jackson as follows. To H. M. Donelson it appears that the title to the following described Land is held by Amos Jackson is not as good as the original title, there never having been a Survey for the claimed District from the field nor ever having been surveyed and a Survey of the Works made by H. M. Donelson and for the consideration of $2000 he was pleased to make an exchange for the same. Deed was so by him - I printed for you all my Deed and title to all of the lots to the Amos and for the above consideration to me in hand De Robeson
