Last Will and Testament

J. N. Fuson

I, J. N. Fuson, being of a sound mind and of disposing memory, reliving the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament, thereby revoking all former Wills by me at any time made.

(1)
It is my will, that as soon after my death as possible all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my executor out of any money or property which may come into her hands.

(2)
After all my just debts and funeral expenses are fully paid, I give to my beloved wife Nancy Jane Fuson, the full use, and benefit of all of the personal property of which I may own at the time of my death, to be enjoyed by her, and used as she may see proper for her maintenance and enjoyment, with the right to sell, so much thereof as may be necessary for her support, and whatever increase there may be in said personal property, such as livestock, my wife is to use in any way she may deem proper for her enjoyment and support, and at her death if there is any of said personal property or its proceeds, it is my will that the same be sold and its proceeds divided equally among the following Children to wit: James Madison Fuson, Bettie Pedigo, David Fuson, Ella Fuson, and Nera Fuson, or to their Children in case any of said Children named above should die, before coming into possession of his or her bequest.

I give to my wife Nancy Jane Fuson for and during her natural life the free use and occupation, enjoyment, rents and profits of the farm on which I now reside, in the 22<sup>d</sup> district of DeKalb County, Tennessee, on the waters of Holmes Creek, consisting an One hundred sixty six acres, for a home for her, so long as she may live to be, controlled by her absolutely, but at her death, it is my will that

James Madison Fuson, Bettie Pedigo, David Fuson, Ella Fuson, and Nera Fuson have said farm share said, share and share alike, and if any of said Children aforesaid next above named should die before coming into possession of their respective interest in said land, the Child or Children surviving, said Child to take their father or mother's interest in said land, as well as their interest in any personal property going to said Child in case of death. And should any of said Children named above die without issue, it is my will that the other Children named above surviving the one who dies, take the interest of said Child in the personal property and real estate the same to be divided among the survivors equally. I do not desire that my son Rufus Perry Fuson shall receive any thing further out of my estate since I have already given him several hundred dollars more than his share in my estate.

I give my beloved wife the right to sell any of the personal property coming into her hands after my death, either publicly or privately as she deems best suited to her interest, and convenience with the right to use the money derived from the same in any manner she desired, or she may exchange said personal property, for other property if she so desires for her comfort and well being of her self while she lives.

(5)
I nominate and appoint my wife Nancy Jane Fuson, executrix of this my last will and testament and relieve her from the execution of bond for the discharge of the trust imposed herein. I also relieve her from making settlement in the County Court or from filing inventory of my personal property, since if it is necessary for her to use all of said personal property of which I may die the owner, I desire that she consume it all for her comfort.

Last Will and Testament

Lena Givan Allen.

In case I Lena Givan Allen should die before Frances Roberta Allen my adopted child becomes of age and if my brother Emmons Dale Givan + wife are in good health + can take Francis Allen with what means I Lena Allen have in life insurance, real estate consisting of Alfred P. Allens share of the place known as the H. H. Allen home, which is now in hands of Fudie Allen her life time. Also taxes on same place for which I hold receipts paid by Alfred P. Allen out of his own means and in the name of L. D. + A. P. Allen et by will of H. H. Allen. Place I now live and 1/3 interest of G. B. Givan home place given him by his father Thomas Givan his life time + then to his heirs, (G. B. Givan is my father).

If Emmons Givan wishes to live at place I now live + rent go for up keep of Frances and enough of other means to pay him for her board + keep + if necessary use enough of principle to clothe + send to school.

If said Emmons Givan should not be living at time of my death then if Foster parents of Frances Allens sisters Katherine C. Marshall want to take her on the above terms except my interest in my fathers farm, on this she is to have income on 1/3 of the place until she becomes twenty one years old then she is to have same.

Emmons is to do either he chooses take Frances board + keep out of the 1/3 of G. B. Givan farm from time of his death until Frances becomes of age or out of other effects.

This is the final disposition of my effects except the sale of household and other personal effects. I have two diamond rings, the smaller one to be given Frances on her eighteenth birthday and the larger one on her twenty first birthday.

Things that can be used for Frances to be made use of.

Will of James C. Foster

I, James C. Foster of Smithville DeKalb County Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, knowing the certainty of death and the uncertainty of life, and being associated in business with my brother, Alva Foster, and we being joint owners of certain property, real, personal and mixed, and being desirous of arranging my worldly affairs; do make and publish this, as my last will and testament hereby revoking any other will by me at any time made. First. I will and direct that all my just debts and liabilities, including my burial expenses be paid by my executor out of the first money that may come to his hands belonging to my estate. Second. After a satisfaction of the matters included in the first clause of this instrument, I will and bequeath unto my said brother, Alva Foster, Leland Foster and my sister, Ella Foster share and share alike all the balance and residue of my estate, real, personal and mixed, subject to the following conditions, that is to say:

My surviving brother and partner, Alva Foster may continue our business as we are now conducting the same, including the support of himself, my brother Leland and sister Ella out of our partnership effects, they continuing to live together, as we are all now living; he being hereby clothed with the power and authority to so act in this capacity so long as he may live, or so long as he desires to do so, he being the managing head of our said business matters and the head of the family, and all these matters he will manage and direct without molestation or interference by any one, but, if my said partner and brother, for any reason, at any time should think best or proper to close out and discontinue our said business he shall have the right and power to do so without any interference by any one, and whatever at that time may remain of my part of our effects, or my estate proper will be equally divided between my said brother Alva Foster and Leland Foster and my said sister Ella Foster, or the survivors of said brothers and sister named, provided, they shall all remain single, but if either one of them should marry and die leaving issue, before a distribution as aforesaid, the share that such one would be entitled to if living will go to such issue. It being my wish, intent and will that all my earthly belongings at my death shall vest as aforesaid in my said two brothers, Alva and Leland and sister Ella, or the survivors of said three, if either one should die without legal issue. In either words, if one of my said brothers should die without legal issue my estate is to be divided between the remaining two mentioned, if both my said brothers should so die all my estate to go to my said sister, and if my said sister and one of the brothers mentioned should so die all my estate shall go to the remaining living one; and the time of such vested rights shall take effect at the discontinuance of the business mentioned, and a distribution of my estate as herein declared.

Third- I will and direct that my executor sell any or all my property that he thinks best to so sell, privately, and to that end he is hereby clothed with power and authority to so sell, and convey by deed any or all my real estate.

Fourth- It is my wish and desire that my said brothers and sister continue to live together as we are now living; and the expense of such living be paid out of the joint effects of myself and brother Alva Foster, he acting as the head of the household and directing its affairs.

Fifth- I hereby nominate and appoint my brother Alva Foster my executor, and he will so act without bond, being hereby relieved of executing bond, and from settling up my estate within the statutory time from his appointment by the court, the two years time provided by statute to begin when our business is discontinued, as hereinbefore mentioned.

This January 15, 1919.

Will of Jeanette Reynolds

I, Jeanette Reynolds being of sound mind and disposing memory and knowing that life is uncertain and that death is sure. I hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other wills heretofore made by me.

I hereby will and bequeath to my brothers and sister, Bethel Lawson, Dewitt Lawson, Walton Lawson, E. G. Lawson, Jr., Eugene Lawson, and Annie Leisen, all of my household goods of every description to be divided equally if it can be done, if not, that they be sold, and the proceeds be divided equally among them, together with the farming tools, and other personal property.

That all of my just debts be paid. The real estate is not to be sold until after the death of my father E. G. Lawson & he is to control, and live on, and use the same during his lifetime, and at his death, it is my desire that it be sold publicly or privately, and the proceeds be divided between the brothers and sister, aforesaid, together with the Methodist Church at Keltonburg, sharing equal with the brother and sister in the proceeds of the real estate, but the interest of the Church is to be used only for finishing, and beautifying the Church.

It is my desire that my sister and brothers aforesaid have the proceeds of this estate and not to their heirs, in the event of death of any one of them, their money goes back to the other living brothers and sister.

Having only one sister it is my desire that she have my diamond ring. It is my desire that a suitable stone be put to my grave. I want to be buried at Salem Liberty Tennessee.

I hereby appoint my brother Dewitt Lawson, my executor and he is to wind up all business without compensation or bond.

Will of M. Parker

I, M. Parker residing in the 9th Civil District of DeKalb County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory do hereby make this as my last Will and Testament, revoking and making void any and all other Wills heretofore made by me.

Item No. 1.

I want all of my just debts and funeral expenses paid as soon after my death as is convenient out of any money that I may have at my death.

Item No. 2.

I want my executor hereinafter named to pay over to Bernice Lown my daughter a reasonable amount for living with me and helping me provided she stays on with me until my death.

Item No. 3.

I have two tracts of land in the 9th Civil District of DeKalb County, Tennessee, the tract of land on Caney Fork River contains 35 acres more or less and the tract on which I live contains about 120 or 125 acres more or less. I want my Executor hereinafter named to sell the above mentioned tracts of land either publically or privately either one he deems best and divide the proceeds equally among my children. Except the heirs of Della Cope deceased, I have already advanced her some money, therefore I want her heirs, meaning her children to have One Hundred and Fifty Dollars to be divided between them.

Item No. 4.

I hereby authorize my Executor hereinafter named to be clothed with the authority to sell the above mentioned two tracts of land and make the deeds to the same without going into Court for that purpose.

Item No. 5.

I do hereby nominate and appoint my son, Frank Parker to be my executor to this my Will and testament without bond. And I want him to be paid as much as One Hundred Dollars for his service and if he has to work more than Executors commonly do I want him to have One Hundred and Fifty Dollars for his service.

Item No. 6.

I want my Executor, Frank Parker to sell all of the personal property and divide the proceeds among the children equally except the heirs of Todd Cape which I have provided for in item three of this will.

(1)

It is my will that all of my just debts and my funeral expenses be first paid out of any estate that I may own at the time of my death.

I have no children or brothers and sister of the full blood but have had one half brother and three half sisters, and it being my desire that they, my brother and sisters, share in my estate, I will and bequeath unto Robt Russell, Taylor Russell, Dewey Russell, Herbert Russell, Dillard Russell, Bertie West, and Jessie Russell, jointly, a one-fourth undivided interest in my entire estate, real and personal.

I will and bequeath unto Maudie Champion, Frank Young and Oscar Young, who are children of my deceased sister, Sara Young, jointly, a one-fourth undivided interest in my entire estate, real and personal.

I will and bequeath to my sister Dartoth Clark, for life with remainder to Jeffie Jones and Ruby Hutchings, a one-fourth undivided interest in my entire estate, real and personal.

I will and bequeath unto my sister, Roberta Taylor, for life, with remainder to her children, Roy Taylor, Hattie Taylor, and Effie Justice, a one-fourth undivided interest in my entire estate, real and personal, and Roy Taylor being dead, his children will take his share in said estate.

Last Will and Testament of Isaac A. Eaton

I, Isaac A. Eaton of DeKalb County, Georgia, realizing the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death do make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other Wills I may have heretofore made.

I Name, Constitute and appoint Rob Potter as Executor, Without bond.

I direct that my executor Pay all my just and Proven debts.

Of the remainder I give devise and bequeath any and all Property remaining of whatever kind or nature to my wife Martha Eaton, during her Natural life or until she should remarry.

Should she remarry I desire that all my real estate be sold and divided, share and share alike, between my children and my wife, she to have a Child's Part.

At her death I direct that all of my household goods and other Personal Property be divided share and share alike between my children and if any of my children should die before that time, then their Will receive their mother's share.

I do not desire my household goods to be sold but want the children of mine and three good and true friends to assist them to divide my household effects as near equally share and share alike as is possible and if there be any disagreement, Majority of the three are, thereby, any dispute.

If any child or children should contest this Will in the Courts then the Provisions of this Will as to them are revoked and either she or them are to be Paid $1, which is to be in full as to their Part of my estate.

At the death of my wife, I direct that my real estate be sold and divided equally share and share alike between my three daughters Shelby Eaton Grandstaff, Lovie Bell Eaton, Martha Lena Eaton Rowland, and Mallie Eaton Potter, unless she should remarry, as provided above the Conditions would apply.

If I should leave any considerable amount of money or other personal estate, it is my intention that the life tenants above set out, should only have the use and benefit of the income produced by such money or personal property, and that the corpus of said personal property be kept intact for the benefit of those entitled to said remainder interest.
