First: I hereby appoint Ollie Whitlock the sole executrix of this my last Will and Testament.

Second: I set aside Three Thousand Dollars ($3000.00) for the purpose of paying doctors bills, funeral expenses, head rock or tomb-stone, or any other expenses that may arise for which I am responsible. If there should be any money left after all of these bills are paid, it shall be kept for taxes, insurance and upkeep of house and lot where where I now live.

Third: I leave to my niece, Ollie Whitlock, my house, lot and furnishings for her life time. I do this because she has taken care of me in my old age. She is to see after the care of the family Cemetery lot. At her death, the house, lot and furnishings will go to the relative who agrees to see after and care for the family Cemetery Lot.

Fourth: If the house above referred to, should be damaged or destroyed by fire, wind storm, or from any cause, the insurance coverage is to be used to re-build or repair the house.

"LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF LOU HARRISON CALHOUN"

KNOWN ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I, Lou Harrison Calhoun, of Smithville, Dekalb County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and not acting under duress, menace, fraud or undue influence of any person whatsoever, and realizing the uncertainty of life, do make, publish and declare this as my last will and testament, and do hereby expressly revoke all other wills or codicils to wills by me at any time heretofore made.

(1)

As soon after my death as practical I direct that my executor, as hereinafter named, pay all of my just debts including funeral expenses, out of the first money that may come into his hands.

(2)

Next, I leave to my daughter Helen Smithson, a vacant lot, which said lot is located West of the present location of a store operated by she and her husband, this lot is to have a width on State Highway 26 running from their property line to within 10 feet of a concrete block building now used as a garage by my son James, and to have a depth running back to a point which would be 10 feet north of the back side of their store building--this to be her property absolutely.

(3)

I next direct, authorize and empower my executor, as hereinafter named, to sell and dispose of all of my real property, which I may die seized and possessed with, at the highest price he can obtain, and convert the same into cash at public or private sale, and he (the executor) is to do this within nine (9) months from the date of my death, all sales to be made for cash, and the executor is directed and empowered to execute, acknowledge and deliver all paper writings, deeds of conveyance and transfers necessary to give purchasers a clear title to said land.

(4)

After the converting into cash of the real property in item three herein, I direct that the total of my estate (personal property and the cash realized from the sale of the real property) go as follows: I direct that my daughter, Helen Smithson, shall have one half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of the total amount; next I direct (subject to a provision listed hereinafter) that my son, James Calhoun, shall have one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) of the total amount; and lastly I direct that my granddaughter, Lynn Calhoun shall have one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) of the total amount. However at the time of making this my last will and testament it is my fear that my son James Calhoun will do bodily harm to me--and should he do bodily harm to me which would result in my death then I direct that his one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) of the total amount go unto my grand-daughter Lynn Calhoun--which could make her receive one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of the total amount.

(5)

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint, Ramon M. Adcock an attorney of Smithville, Tennessee, as executor of this my last will and direct that he make bond and settlement with the County Court and be required to do all things in compliance with the applicable law, including the payment of my State inheritance tax, if any, be due against my estate, and that his compensation be set by the County Judge for carrying out the duties herein as executor.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand on this August 16th, 1961 in Smithville, Tennessee to this my last will.

LOU HARRISON CALHOUN
