Under no circumstances shall any of the realty be sold except as hereinafter provided.

After all debts are settled as above I do give and bequeath to Thurman Cullom and Nattie Lee my children all my remaining property, both personal and real, and all monies and accounts due me as my estate under the following conditions:

The estate is to remain intact until both the children shall have reached their majority.

If they may sell divide or dispose of the property as they see fit. (It would please me best however, for the farm to remain intact. This is sentiment, and is not intended to restrict their actions after they are grown.)

I would have it expressly understood that under no circumstances be brought to bear an Administrator or Legatee by any of the relatives of Sarah Jane Thompson, my deceased wife nor that these relatives have any voice whatever in the management or disposition of any part of the estate.

In the event of the death of either child his or her part of the estate shall revert to the other. But if either be married and leave heirs, then his or her part shall descend to these heirs. If both children should die without issue, then the estate shall revert to my brothers and sisters.

As Administrator I name Dr. A. C. Dickson, and clothe him with full authority to legally administer the estate until Thurman Cullom, my son, is twenty one. Then said Thurman Cullom shall assume full control as administrator. In the event of death or disqualification of said A. C. Dickson, I name N. W. Thompson to act in his stead.
