It is our will, and desire that which ever one of us die first, then all the property, real, personal and mixed, and where ever situated, shall go and be vested in the one then living that sign this will.

It is our wish and desire, that the above plan be carried out fully. That is upon the death of the first above mentioned, then all of his or her property shall go to the three surviving.

And then upon the death of either one of the surviving parties, all of his or her property shall go to, and be vested in the two then living, and upon the death of either of the other two then living, all of the property shall come to that one shall meet in the surviving absolutely and without limitation. This will is of course revocable at any time, and it is understood that should any of the above parties marry, then his or her part of the will is revoked, but if we continue as we are now living then the same is to be of full force and effect.

Gaoah Alexander Clifton

In the Name of God, Amen.

I Gaoah Alexander Clifton, of Jackson, Tennessee, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof, and being desirous of settling my worldly affairs, and thereby be better prepared to leave this world when it shall please the Almighty, to come hence, do hereby make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all wills by me heretofore made, in manner and form following, that is to say:

First, and principally, I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God, and my body to the earth, to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executor hereinafter named; and my will is, that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be paid by my Executor hereinafter named as soon after my decease as shall be convenient;

Second, I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Mary Elizabeth Clifton, to be hers absolutely, that piece of property now owned by me and located on the west side of South Main Street, Jackson, Tenn., known as the Etkins property, also the vacant lot to the rear of same, farming on Mulberry Street and all household effects.

Third, it is my will and desire, and I do direct that all the rest and residue of my estate of which I may die possessed, both real, personal and mixed, be converted to cash and my Executor hereinafter named is hereby instructed and empowered to sell my real estate either at public or private sale, whichever he may find most advantageous, and when sold he is hereby authorized and empowered to execute and convey said property to purchaser.

Fourth. It is my will and desire and I so direct that, when the instructions heretofore set out in this will have been complied with and my estate is ready to be distributed as hereinafter set out, my Executor shall retain in his possession and thereafter assume the duties of trustee of said money, one third (1/3) of the cash in hand, and it is my desire and I so direct that said trustee shall invest these funds to the best of his knowledge and behalf in United States Government Bonds, State of Tennessee Bonds or County of Dickson Bonds, the interest received from the investment of said funds to be paid by my trustee to my wife, Mary Elizabeth Clifton. Should the interest received from the investment of the said funds fail to give my wife, Mary Elizabeth Clifton, an annual income of nine hundred ($900.00) dollars, then it is my desire and the trustee is hereby instructed to appropriate a sufficient amount each year of the original one-third (1/3) to increase the income of my wife nine hundred ($900.00) dollars per annum.

Fifth, should my wife, Mary Elizabeth Clifton, become dissatisfied with the home given her in the second paragraph of this will and prefer to live elsewhere, then it is my desire and I so direct that the trustee of the funds set out in fourth paragraph of this will appropriate a sufficient amount of the original funds, which when added to the price received from the sale on the Elkins dwelling, it will enable my wife to purchase a home in town of Dickson, or the County of Dickson, Tenn., not to exceed four thousand ($4000.00) dollars, same to be decided to her and become hers absolutely.

Sixth. At the death of my said wife I so desire and so direct that such balance as yet remains of the trust funds set out in the fourth paragraph of this will be converted to cash and paid by the trustee to my ten children, namely, J. N. Clifton, Bertie Clifton Dudley, Annie Clifton Donegan, Ruby Clifton Crow, J. C. Clifton, Arthur Clifton, J. E. Clifton, Lucy Clifton, Lila Clifton and W. W. Clifton, to them and their heirs and assigns forever, share and share alike, as tenants in common.

Seventh, All the rest and residue of my estate, I give, devise and bequeath to my ten children, J. N. Clifton, Bertie Clifton Dudley, Annie Clifton Donegan, Ruby Clifton Crow, J. C. Clifton, Arthur Clifton, J. E. Clifton, Lucy Clifton, Lila Clifton and W. W. Clifton, to them and their heirs and assigns forever, share and share alike, as tenants in common.

And lastly, I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint S. H. Robertson, Executor of this my last will and testament, and I desire that my Executor hereinafter before named shall give bond for the faithful performance of the duties of that office and before entering upon the duties in the execution of my last will he shall execute a bond, with some reliable bonding company as surety, binding him in the full sum twenty thousand ($20,000.00) dollars, the cost of the premium of said bond to be paid out of my estate.

In testimony whereof, I have set my hand and seal to this my last will and testament, at Dickson, Tennessee, this the 12th day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and twenty nine.
