Last will and Testament of Mrs. Bettie Pardue

I, Bettie Pardue, wife of Albert E. Pardue, a resident of the County of Dickson and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills made by me at any time heretofore.

First I give and devise unto my Grand-nieces, Mrs Ruth Harding (nee Harper) and Rhea Harper (the children of my deceased niece, Mrs Sallie Harper) for the term of their natural lives a tract of 64 1/2 acres of land, near Clapmansboro, in the 16th District of Cheatham County, Tennessee, bounded on the North by the right of Way line of the Tennessee Central Railroad, on the East by the line of the A. C. Luff off land, on the South by Cumberland River, and on the West by the Big Ditch, which is in the property line of the T. C. Pardue land, and the said Luff land, and being the same tract conveyed to me by deed from George and John Duckliday, dated March 5th, 1891, and Recorded in Book 97, page 580, of the Register's Office Cheatham County, Tennessee, to be held in reversion by the said Ruth Harding and Rhea Harper, and divided equally between them so as to give each an equal number of acres, the share of Ruth Harding to be the Northern half adjoining the Tennessee Central Railroad, and the share of Rhea Harper to be the Southern half, adjoining Cumberland River, and I give and devise the said lands respectively to the said Ruth Harding and Rhea Harper, to their sole and separate use and benefit, free from the debts, trusts, or control of any other person or persons, each to hold her share as long as she shall live, but without the right to dispose of or encumber same by any means and for any purpose, and at the death of each of said devisees, I direct that her share shall go to the heirs of her body, if there be such, and if not, to her legal heirs of the blood of my deceased Niece Sallie Harper, and if not, to my heirs.

Second I will and direct that any other property I may die seized and possessed of, if there be any, shall go to my heirs under the Laws of descent and distribution now in effect in Tennessee.

Third,

I nominate and appoint James Majors, of Dickson Tennessee to be the Executor of this my will, and in case of his failure, for any reason, to act as such, I request the Court to appoint some suitable person to act in his stead.

Witness my hand, This November 10th 1911.

In the County Court of Dickson County, Tenn.

James Majors, Executor of the will of Mrs Bettie Pardue vs. Part.

This day came James Majors, a resident of Dickson County, Tenn., and produced in open Court a certain paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mrs Bettie Pardue which paper is dated 10th day of Nov. 1911, signed "Bettie Pardue" and attested by L. J. Pardue and S. R. Marable, as witnesses thereto, and the said James Majors, is there sworn as Executor thereof, and thereupon the said James Majors stated that Mrs Bettie Pardue is dead, and moved the Court to admit said paper to probate as the last will and testament of Bettie Pardue, and thereupon came W. L. Mitchell, of Dickson and S. R. Marable who were duly sworn and examined in open Court, and it appearing to the Court from the testimony of W. L. Mitchell and L. J. Pardue that Mrs Bettie Pardue is dead, and it further appearing to the Court from the sworn testimony of L. J. Pardue and S. R. Marable touching the execution of said paper that on the date which said paper bears, the said Bettie Pardue signed and published said paper as her last will and testament in the presence of the said L. J. Pardue and S. R. Marable and at her request they each signed their names to said paper as attesting witnesses thereto in her presence and the presence of each other, it is therefore considered by the Court that said paper is the last will and Testament of said Bettie Pardue, and that it be admitted to Probate as such will and Testament and recorded in the proper will Book of this Court, and that said Testamentary will issue to James Majors as Executor of said will, on his executing a properly Conditioned Bond as required by Law, in the sum of Two hundred and fifty Dollars, and therein said James Majors together with T. M. Hays, T. E. Gray, J. J. Taylor and T. R. Dickman as his sureties signed and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of 250.00 Conditioned as required by Law, which Bond is approved and accepted by the Court.

J. R. Dickman, Clerk

Know all men by these presents, That I, Jas. Dawson being of sound mind and memory, but feeble in health do make and publish this as my last will and testament revoking all others heretofore made by me,

1st
I will that all my just debts be paid as soon after my death as practicable, by my Executors out of any money that may be on hand, or that may come into his hands and if necessary, they sell a sufficiency of my personal property to pay said debts.

2nd
I will unto my beloved wife Willabella Dawson all the personal property that I may die seized and possessed of after paying my debts and expenses, and I direct that my Executors shall turn over to her all of said personal property soon after my death as it may convenient to do so, and I direct that she have said personal property as her own to do with as she pleases for her maintenance and support, and at her death I direct that said personal property if any remaining, be disposed of as she hereafter directs.

3rd
I will unto my said wife my farm, where I now live a goodly tract, said farm consisting of about 84 acres more or less. It is my desire that my said wife have full charge and control of said land to do with same as she may see fit during her lifetime, and at her death said land be disposed of as she hereafter directs.

4th
It is my will and desire that at the death of both myself and my wife Willabella Dawson, that all my property both real and personal, remaining after the death of my wife be sold by my Executors as follows and on the following terms to wit: That my personal property be sold for cash or on short time credit taking notes with personal security, or for cash as may seem best by my Executors.

And it is my desire that my real estate be sold by my Executors either privately or by public sale on the following terms to wit: One third cash and the remainder on one and two years, taking notes with not from date and when on the land until said notes are paid.

It is my desire that the proceeds of my personal and real estate be sold by Executors at the death of my wife, be applied as follows to wit: I want an iron fence put around the grave of myself my wife Willabella and my former wife Liza Dawson at the Belvidere Graveyard on Jones Creek at which it is my desire that myself and my present wife be buried. I want a large tombstone placed at the head of my grave with inscription in front, on the left I want appropriate inscription for my former wife Liza Dawson and appropriate inscription for my present wife Willabella Dawson on my right. It is my desire that the work be selected and done by my Executors and they are the best judgment in selecting my having said done and that they pay for same out of the proceeds of the sale of my property, I herein before directed, they will have erected a good substantial iron fence with a iron base not less than 8 inches from the ground and the number of the fence, I want them to spend for the same as heretofore spoken of. The fence is to enclose the graves of myself and my present and my former wives.

5th
I hereby name and appoint J. R. Dickson and J. L. Leach as my Executors, to carry out the provisions of my will, and I hereby authorize and empower them, or either of them to sell my land and to make deeds to the purchaser in as full and ample manner as I could if I was living and in case of the death of either of them I authorize the other to act by himself, and in case of the death of both I want the Court to appoint one to execute and carry out my will.

6th
In Testimony whereof I have hereunto affixed my signature in the presence of witnesses.

W. R. Boyte, Executor of the Will of Albert E. Pardue.

Ex parte.

This day came W. R. Boyte, and produced in open Court a certain paper purporting to be the last will and testament of (or) Albert E. Pardue, which paper is dated, Oct., 15, 1915, signed Albert E. Pardue and attested by F. F. Allen and L. J. Pardue, as witnesses thereto, and the said W. R. Boyte being nominated as executor therein.

And it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court from the testimony of witnesses in open Court that the said Albert E. Pardue is dead, the said W. R. Boyte moved the Court to admit said paper to probate as the last will and testament of Albert E. Pardue.

Thereupon came into open Court the attesting witnesses, F. F. Allen and L. J. Pardue, who being duly sworn and examined in open Court touching the execution of said paper, said witnesses on their oaths do say that Albert E. Pardue, on the 15th day of October, 1915, signed and published said paper as his last will and testament in their presence, and at his request they each signed as attesting witnesses, in his presence, and in the presence of each other.

It is therefore considered by the Court that said paper is the last will and testament of said Albert E. Pardue, and that it be admitted to probate as such will and testament and recorded in the proper will book of this Court.

Letters testamentary will issue to W. R. Boyte, as executor of said will on his executing a proper bond in the sum of Sixty Thousand Dollars, duly conditioned according to law and duly approved by this Court.

Albert E. Pardue's Will.

I, Albert E. Pardue, a resident of Pardue, Dickson County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills made by me at any time heretofore:

To Althea Harper Majors and Ruth Harper Harding, who are the daughters of Mrs. Sallie Harper, dead, and the grand-nieces of my beloved wife, Bettie Pardue, I give and devise for life, with conditions and limitations hereinafter stated, the following lands which are a part of my home place, at the Mouth of Harpeth River, in Dickson County, Tennessee:

1st, Tract: Beginning at a sycamore on the mouth of Harpeth and Charlotte road, the S.E. corner of Lot No. 2, and running thence with said road N. 34-1/2° W., 16 poles; thence N. 22-3/4° W. 27-3/10 poles to a stone in edge of road; thence N. 66-3/4° E. passing the S.W. corner of Lot No. 1 at 2 poles, in all 16 poles to a stone at low water mark on Harpeth River; thence up said river 43-1/2 poles to a stone; thence S. 59-1/2° W. 6-2/10 poles to the beginning, containing Three and 1/10 acres, more or less, and being Lot No. 3 of a recent plat and subdivision of my home place on which is the residence formerly occupied by James Majors.

2nd, Tract: This is the upper, or eastern, part of my home place according to said plat and subdivision, and is bounded as follows:
Beginning at Two large Stones on the north side of the Charlotte road,

Mitchella corner, and running thence with the meanders of said road to points as follows: N. 66-1/4° E. 36-8/10 poles; S. 75° E. 32-8/10 poles; S. 53-1/4° E. 35 poles; S. 77° E. 16 poles; N. 74° E. 56 poles; N. 78° E. 29-6/10 poles; N. 47-1/4° E. 22 poles; N. 23° E. 29 poles; N. 8° W. 43-2/10 poles; N. 28-1/4° E. 8-8/10 poles; N. 55° E. 23-6/10 poles; N. 66-3/4° E. 24 poles; N. 72° 16-7/10 poles; N. 18-1/4° E. 18-8/10 poles; N. 1-1/4° E. 35-4/10 poles to a hackberry at the Tie Yard; thence leaving said road; N. 42-1/4° E. 7 poles to a stone at low water mark on Harpeth River; thence down said river 60 poles to a stone, the S.E. corner of Lot No. 3; thence S. 59-1/4° W. 16 poles to a stone, the S.W. corner of Lot No. 2; thence N. 22-3/4° W. 56-7/10 poles to a stone and Cedar post, the S.W. corner of Lot No. 1; thence N. 28-1/4° W. 33-8/10 poles to a double Hackberry; thence N. 39-1/4° E. 10 poles to a stone at low water mark on Cumberland River, the lower or northern corner of Lot No. 1; thence down Cumberland River 83 poles to a stone, the N.E. corner of the middle tract of my home place; thence S. 9-1/4° W. 165 poles to a stone 6 poles S. E. of a barn; thence S. 56-3/4° W. 22 poles to a double Ash; thence N. 83-1/4° W. 15-2/10 poles to a Beech; thence S. 75-1/2° W. 21-6/10 poles to a Beech on a branch; thence S. 55-1/4° W. 22-4/10 poles to a Beech; thence S. 47-1/2° W. 21-6/10 poles to a sycamore; thence S. 40-1/4° W. 26-1/2 poles to a Dogwood in Will Lewis's east boundary line; thence S. 4° W. 132 poles to the beginning, containing Three Hundred and Seventy Acres more or less, of which there is, by estimation, 175 acres of bottom land, and 195 acres of hill land.

The said Althea and Ruth shall hold said lands for life, and in equal parts and proportions and free from the debts, contracts, and control of any other person or persons, and without the right to convey any interest in said lands or to incumber same in any way.

At the death of each of the life tenants named in this clause or my will her One Half interest shall be divided between her children equally; provided, that if any of her children shall be dead and have descendants surviving, the descendants of such deceased child shall take the share that child would have received if living.

If either of said life tenants shall die, and there be no child, children, or descendants of her children surviving her, and the other life tenant be living, then such surviving life tenant shall take and hold the other One Half interest in said lands for life, and with the same conditions and limitation and subject to the same final disposition as the One Half interest she shall already hold.

If at the death of the last of said life tenants there shall be no child, children, or the descendants of the children of either of them to take the remainder interest in her share, then her share shall go to my heirs, under the laws of descent and distribution now in force in Tennessee, and whether her share shall at that time be all of said lands, or her original One Half interest; but, if at that time there be living a child, children, or descendants of the other life tenant, such child, children, or descendants shall take this share also, and in the same manner and proportions as if said last surviving life tenant had been their ancestress.

To James Baudouin, Theo. Baudouin, Charlotte Baudouin Mongrue,

Notesia Baudouin Rouselle, Melia Baudouin Hyde, Fredonia Baudouin Lightfoot, and

Felicia Baudouin, who are the children of my deceased sister, Fredonia Pardue Baudouin and to the children of her deceased son, Joseph Baudouin, I give and devise for life, the following lands, which are a part of my home place at the

A. E. P.

Mouth of Harpeth River, in Dickson County, Tennessee, being the lower, or western, part according to the same plat and subdivision and bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at the N.W. corner of the middle tract, at low water mark on Cumberland River, and runs thence down said river 181 poles to the corner of the Collier land; thence S. 3° W. 152 poles to a Stone near a gate, thence S. 73° W. 13 poles to a stake; thence with a drain; S. 28° E. 75-1/2 poles; thence S. 5° E. 13 poles; thence S. 21° E. 10 poles; thence S. 4° W. 12 poles; thence S. 9-1/4° E. 28-1/2 poles to a sugar tree in said drain; thence S. 2-1/2° W. 66 poles to Two Stones in a hollow; thence N. 82-1/2° E. 31-1/2 poles to a stone and pointers on a hillside; thence N. 72-1/2° E. 11-4/10 poles to a stone in the S.W. corner of the Mitchell 23-1/2 acre tract; thence S. 89° E. 33 poles to a Poplar in a hollow; thence S. 71° E. 27 poles to a sugar tree; thence S. 89° E. 44 poles to a white oak on a road, on the west boundary of the Pinson land; thence N. 2-1/2° E. passing the S.W. corner of the middle tract at 40 poles, in all 47 poles to a large Elm; thence N. 13° E. 32-8/10 poles to a Beech, S.E. of a Mill; thence N. 4° E. 59-1/2 poles to an Ironwood on the bank of a branch; thence N. 50-3/4° E. 13-6/10 poles to a Beech; thence N. 13-1/2° E. 50-7/10 poles to a Sycamore at a gate; thence N. 37-1/2° E. 5-8/10 poles to a Sycamore and Boxelder; thence N. 3-1/2° W. 151 poles to the beginning, containing Three Hundred and Sixty Seven and One Half acres, more or less, of which there is, by estimation, 183 acres of bottom land, and 184-1/2 acres of hill land.

But, there is excluded from the foregoing the Mill above mentioned and one acre of land surrounding same, and connecting with the middle tract hereinafter mentioned.

Each of the life tenants named in this clause or my will shall hold and enjoy for life a One Eighth interest in said lands, and the children of Joseph Baudouin shall together hold the other One Eighth for life, but, if at my death any of the children of said Joseph Baudouin shall be dead and shall have child or children surviving, such child or children shall take the share of their deceased parent; the children of Joseph Baudouin shall take and hold as life tenants, but their children as remaindermen.

At the death of each of the life tenants named or designated in this clause or my will the share of such life tenant shall go to his or her legal heirs, under the laws of Tennessee.

To S. R. Pardue, Kittie Ann Horton, and Billa E. Eplin, who are the children of my deceased brother, George Pardue, I give and devise the following lands for life: Said lands being a part of my home place at the Mouth of Harpeth River, in Dickson County, Tennessee, bounded and described as follows:

1st. Tract: Beginning at a stone at low water mark on

A. E. P.

Cumberland River, and running thence S. 39-1/4° W. 10 poles to a double Hackberry; thence S. 28-1/4° E. 33-8/10 poles to a Stone and Cedar Post; thence N. 69° E. 9-4/10 poles to a stone and Cedar Post between my residence and the warehouse; thence S. 19° E. 11-6/10 poles to a Cedar Post in the horse lot fence; thence
