

to each of my wife at the same time published & declared the foregoing instrument as subscribed to be her last will and testament in which the testator request & in her presence have signed our names as witnesses hereto without any force to our names our respective places of residence
 C. A. Hunt Franklin Co. Tennessee
 John Smith Franklin Co. Tennessee

I Amos Horton do make ordain and publish this as my last will and testament and in addition to what I have already given to my several children & grand children by deed or otherwise I do hereby give and bequeath to them as follows
 1st to my sons Amos H. Horton & Elmore R. Horton my tract of land known as the Jones tract per deedly line of Moses Bridge by deed to which reference is hereby made for a further description said tract of land to be divided between my said sons in the following manner: The dividing line to commence on the Eastern boundary line thereof and the line between myself & Martin Mason above Mosses house and running thence to the Eastern boundary of said land so as to include in the Northern portion the timber land thereon the line to run at the edge of the timber and parallel with the edge thereof across the tract my son Amos at Horton to have the Northern portion of said tract & my son Elmore R. Horton the Southern portion thereof divided as aforesaid 2nd to my son Elmore R. Horton my negro man Ben aged now about 31 years or 3rd to my son Jephtha & Horton my negro boy Larkins aged now about 12 years 4th to my son Amos at Horton my negro man George aged now about 40 years 5th the balance of the property both real and personal which I may die possessed in equal portions to all my children and grand children that is to say to Elmore R. Horton children to Jephtha & Horton to Ophre Prieys children to Elizabeth Cornetts children to Rebecca Hortons children to Mary a Polly to Amos at Horton to Elmore R. Horton to Susan M. Gritcher wife of James M. Gritcher & to Laura J. Jones children each an equal portion the issue of any deceased child to receive the portion to which his or their ancestors would be entitled. And it is my will and desire that also here it be devised that the share or portion of my estate to which my daughter Mary & Polly & Susan M. Gritcher may be respectively entitled be vested in the same as hereby vested in my Executor or whoever may execute this will as trustee for the sole & separate use of my said daughter during life & remainder to their children which I desire that so done that my Executor hereafter named or unknown may execute this will shall at public sale to the highest bidder all the property both real & personal of which I may be possessed not lawfully devised by this will the real estate on a credit of one & two years and the personal property on a credit of twelve months after showing advertised the true place & terms thereof as required by law & I divide the proceeds of said sale among my children & grand children as herein directed and authority is hereby expressly given to my Executors or whomever they shall think proper to execute it the purchasers of said property good and sufficient title to the property respectively purchased by them "My negroes who choose wives or husbands residing in this County are not to be sold by my Executors except to persons residing in this County & I do hereby nominate & appoint my sons Messrs. Boston & Edmund R. Boston as Executors of this will" April 19th 1860

 Leg. m^d published by the Court, Boston Testator as his last will & Testament in our presence & we subscribe in the name of the Court as witnesses in his presence & at his request April 19 1860
 John Frazzelle Dillord Brooks

State of Tennessee
 County Court June Term 1860: Then the last will & Testament of John Boston deceased was presented to Court for probate & duly proved by the Oaths of Dillord Brooks & John Frazzelle the subscribing witnesses
 John L. Crooks

State of Tennessee Franklin County Chancery Court
 February Term 1860
 Elizabeth Brauman v. George before Hon. B. D. Pehy Judge who against her & wife at all & upon the ph. advices & proof from which it appears to the Court that Matthew Swann had before his death made his last will & Testament by which he bequeathed & divided up his property to at & personal after the payment of his debts to the complainant & that a few weeks before his death his then wife the defendant Julia Boston Murphree said will with the fraudulent intent to defeat the object of the Testator "I do now decree that said will be established by this Court the Complainant is the only Legatee under said will & the right title to the said ground by said Swann is vested in the Complainant his heirs & assigns forever & in payment of debts of Testator the Clerk of Master will take possession of the personal estate of the decedent Matthew Swann & also of his indebtedness report to the