Anne Dixon In the name of God Amen, I Anne Dixon of the County of Transylvania do hereby make and cause to be published the following as for my last will & Testament, I wish I give & bequeath unto my daughter Margaret Robinson wife of J. K. Robinson the house & lot on which we at present reside purchased from James Gibson & have & to hold the same with its appurtenances to herself & her separate use & from the control or the debts of her husband for & during her natural life. & word. After the termination of the life Estate of my daughter in the house & lot above devised to her my will is that the same be so divided by my executors and the proceeds thereof equally divided between all the children of my said daughter who may be then living and the Representatives of those who may have died before, the representatives taking the share only to which their deceased Parents would have been entitled if living & third I give & bequeath to my said daughter to her sole & separate use during her natural life & from the control & debts of her husband my old negro man named Andrew & after his death to the children of my said daughter Margaret Robinson and the Representatives of such as may be dead according to the last clause. Fourth I give & bequeath to my said daughter Margaret Robinson all my household & kitchen furniture I wish I give & bequeath to the children of my said daughter Margaret Robinson all the balance of my estate not herein specifically disposed of including all debts which may be owing to me at the time of my decease particularly a debt owing to me by Mrs. Hatching & all money which may be in hand & but it is my will that the principal be laid out at least & the profits alone appropriated to the education of the children until the youngest arrives at the age of twenty one years or married at which time the principal to be divided between those aforesaid children who may be living the Representatives of such as may be dead as above directed. Sixth I have other dear & dear relations children and grand children now living who are particularly dear but not forgotten. If I had the means I should like to have them individually some memorial of my affection but the little presence of property that remains to me in my old age will not be able me to do it & indeed that I will to be divided between one family the share of each will be small indeed. My daughter Margaret is connected with a large family then her husband and both in rather delicate health. David & Anne to my other children & grand children a mother's blessing. Enough I do thereby constitute and appoint my dear and beloved son James Executor of this my ^{last} will & Testament hereby revoking all others.
