

E. R. Horton
 Will
 Shun the Last Will and Testament was presented to Court for probate and was duly proven by the oaths of the Jurors being Justices James B. Tappan and Mr. L. B. Clegg who found the same in open Court and was ordered to be recorded.

E. R. Horton
 Will
 I Elmore R. Horton do make and publish this as my last Will and Testament hereby revoking and annulling and all others by me at any time made. That I desire that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any monies that I may die possessed of or may first come into the hands of my Executor. I cordly give and bequeath to my wife Jennie Horton all of my property whatsoever of real estate or personal property of which I may die seized or possessed after paying expenses of my funeral and debts. Third and lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint my wife Jennie Horton my Executor and at my death she is empowered and authorized to sell or dispose of my real estate to pay off my indebtedness retaining the balance of my property as above provided in Second Section. I do to this my Will set my hand this the fourth day of January A.D. One thousand Eight hundred and sixty nine signed and published in our presence wherefore these rules entered our names in the presence of the Testator
 This the 4th day of January 1869
 Just B. Tappan & Mr. L. B. Clegg
 E. R. Horton

Shun the Last Will and Testament of Horace M. Graves was presented to the County Court for probate and was duly proven by the oaths of A. S. Bly and one of the Jurors being Justices Mr. A. S. Bly and proves the handwriting of Horace M. Graves the same being given from the same in open Court and ordered to be recorded. I Horace M. Graves do make this my last Will and Testament: I give to my Mother Abigail Graves the tract of land lately given to me by G. S. Tappan in contemplation of marriage, given by deed dated 19th June 1865 and Registered in Book 760, Page 487 & 488 of the Registers Office of Franklin County the intention being to use same to my Mother for life or until death in said land equal to three thousand dollars and the remainder to her children my Brothers that is the children she may have at the time of her death. The other one third in said land after the death of my Mother and her children the three thousand dollars I leave shall go to my children if there shall be such living but not any amount if my Mother or her children die.