

County Court Oct June 1861; Then the last will and Testament of Moses Brown declared as presented to Court for probate as duly proven by the Oaths of H. G. Stanton & John Foster the sales coming thereunto as ordered to be recorded. Witness my hand at office Oct 11th 1861 John E. Everts - Clerk

Therewith
 Brazeaton
 Will
 For the love and affection that I entertain for my dear wife and the respect I have for my son Brazeaton I make this my last will and Testament "First" I declare that all my just debts be paid especially I wish all debts to be paid before me and Benjamin Lyggett & Co. and the remainder of my property I give and bequeath to my dear son Brazeaton during his life time should he not live and at his death my share is that it be equally divided between my two children in testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this April 1861 William E. Morris B. H. Bridges Ja. Colt Brazeaton

County Court November Term 1861

Then the last will and Testament of Jacob Brazeaton was presented to Court for probate to the Court & duly proven by the Oaths of E. Morris & H. A. Bridges the sales coming thereunto as ordered to be recorded. Witness my hand at office Nov 9/1861
 John E. Everts - Clerk

J. Smith State of Tennessee
 Will
 I Joseph Smith do hereby make and publish this as my last will and Testament hereby revoking all other Wills by me at any other time made "First" I direct that my debts and expenses and all my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any monies that I in any way possess or may come into the hands of my Executors. I do hereby give and bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth Smith all my property of every description real estate and personal property of all sorts as she may choose for her use and benefit to see or trade as she may see fit for her own use and benefit and of any property except my land and negroes during her natural life and after her decease all my property land and negroes and personal property of every description to be sold to the highest bidder for the most at terms of sale of the proceeds of such sale to be divided as follows "First" I give and bequeath to my Grand Daughter Caroline Clay one