

State of Tennessee 3 County Court October Term 1850: Then the Last Testament of Catherine Sandridge de'd was produced in open Court for probate and thereupon James Wiley Duncan & Thomas Garner the sole and only witnesses thereto who being duly sworn depose and say they are personally acquainted with the Testatrix in his life time that he signed sealed and acknowledged the same in their presence to the last will & Testament that she was of sound mind and disposing memory at the time she signed the same and that they signed their names thereto as witnesses in the presence of her at the request of the Testatrix and on the day it bears date. Wherefore it was ordered by the Court that said will be recorded as the Last will & Testament of E. Taylor Clerk of said Court at office this day of October 1850

James H. Hargis of the County of Transier County State of Tennessee do hereby certify that I am now in my last will & Testament. First I do hereby appoint James H. Hargis as Executor of my last will & Testament. I do hereby direct that he should pay all debts due and demands against my Estate.
 Second I give bequeath to my dear wife Elizabeth Hargis during her natural life or widowhood and my form. I also give her all the personal property left after paying my debts to be for her use & maintenance for her use and benefit and for the use and benefit of my maintenance of her and my children. Third I direct my Executor on the death or marriage of my wife to take charge of my property for the use & benefit of my children. Fourth I direct my Executor to see no property after my death only so much as shall absolutely necessary to pay my debts. But to deliver the same to my wife on the trusts and conditions mentioned in the bequest clause of my last will & Testament.
 Fifth To abate all difficulty I vest the title in my form in my Executor in trust for the use and benefit of my wife & children.
 Sixth I appoint Andrew Hargis & Francis H. Hargis my Executors of this my last will & Testament. In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal the sixteenth day of November the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred & fifty.

James Hargis
 Signed Sealed & Published in presence of us who signed our names as witnesses in his presence and at his request. The Testator being of sound mind and disposing memory at the time of executing the same.
