

2 June Hill of the County of Lancaster and State of Tennessee under the influence of proper feelings and actuated by pure and just motives do by this my last Will and Testament make the following disposition of all the property of which the right of disposition is vested in me viz. the tract of land whereon I now live containing One hundred and fifty acres. I will and devise in fee simple to my son Edward Hill his heirs and assigns forever provided nevertheless that I retain possession of said land during my life and also retain the further privilege of making such dispositions of it as I may think proper at any time hereafter and said disposed of any should be made to remain in force twelve months after my death at the expiration of which my said son Edward shall have complete possession. I further will and devise to my said son Edward one third of the land now growing on my said tract of land also one third of my present stock of hogs. Furthermore I will and devise to my daughter Eliza Davis a negro girl named Betsey which said girl shall remain the property of my said daughter Eliza and at her death descend to her heirs. The Balance of all my property consisting of the negroes I have at my death also the hogs cattle and stock of any other description that may be on hand also the plantations tools and one big and Horns. I will and ordain that they may be duly exposed to public sale and sold to the highest bidder at twelve months credit the proceeds of said sale shall be equally divided among my six children to wit R Hill Catharine R Hill, Sarah Maria Basson James R Hill and Eliza Davis and William R Hill each of which shall receive their said sixth part except Sarah M Basson and it shall be the duty of my Executors hereafter named to purchase some species of property with her part commencing her with regard to what may best answer her and said proportions so purchased and given to said Sarah M shall remain exclusively hers and at her death descend to her heirs provided however that should it appear that my son John Hill should not be dead it shall then be the duty of my Executors to divide the proceeds of said sale into seven parts thereby giving him a little portion with the others. I further will and ordain that my sons James R and William R Hill be Executors to carry into effect the different parts of the foregoing Will Trusting them with full and perfect power to do and thing that may be necessary to perfecting to the Legacies or Legacies that this my last Will and Testament may contain. I also revoke and make void all Wills that may have been executed by me at any time heretofore. In the presence whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twentieth fourth day of June One thousand Eight hundred and Nineteen

Signed in the presence of Al L. Denson
Jane F. Moore

June Hill Seal