

Codicil June 28th 1851

On more mature consideration it may seem to postpone the above sale two years longer and that my son Jesse shall not have possession of his half his said land the sale and that twelve months should begin on all my property and that William and Mary be allowed twelve months support and no more and that the money bequeathed to Joanna M. Shickman Robinson shall be put out at interest by my Executors until Joanna is twenty years of age and that William's part be paid to his sister beginning Bond and security to refund the same with interest when William becomes of age given under my seal

County Court December Term 1851.

Then the last Will and Testaments and two Codicils thereto of Samuel Conn's dec'd. was as presented to Court for probate and the three was as duly proven by the Oaths of Abiel M. Neil & Joseph M. Wood the subscribing witnesses thereto the first Codicil was as duly proven by the Oaths of George W. Conn & Jesse Conn the subscribing witnesses thereto and the second Codicil was proven by the Oath of Samuel Robinson one of the subscribing witnesses thereto. Therefore it was ordered by the Court that the first Codicil thereto be recorded as the law does it. It was further ordered that the 2nd Codicil be filed with the County Court Clerk's office for further probate and at the same time any future 1852 of said Court said 2nd Codicil to said three was again presented to said Court for probate and upon evidence of George M. Cutchman the other subscribing witnesses thereto said Codicil was rejected. Witness my hand at office this day 1852
