

J. O. Harris currenduring the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking all others I have made at any time I do hereby shew and they be it to my three youngest children Richard V.
 Harris Joseph B. Harris and Cornelia Harris one tract of land in Franklin County Tenn. Described containing by estimation fifty Acre or less the same more or less as bounded as follows Beginning at a post or the corner standing on the West side of Pipers Branch on the same being the South East Corner of said Powlings one hundred acres north north said Powlings line forty poles to a stake or point thence one west one hundred and thirty poles to a stake thence South passing the above fifty acres at twelve poles still South with this East boundary six pole forty four poles to a stake thence East one hundred and thirty and one third poles to a stake on the East side of Pipers Branch thence north thirty four poles in the North Boundary of said Powlings before mentioned one hundred acres with the same tract to the Beginning in testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal in the presence of this 1st of June 1866.
 J. O. Harris
 J. O. Harris

County Court July 2nd 1867. Where the last will and testament of J. O. Harris was presented to Court for probate and duly proven by the Oaths of J. O. Smith and J. O.
 Phillips the undersigned Notaries there to and ordered to be recorded. Witness my hand at office July 9th 1867 John A. Enoch
 Clerk

Charles Wood do hereby make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking all making and all other wills I have made at any time I do hereby shew and they be it to my children and all my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any monies that I may be possessed of or may hereafter come into the hands of my Executors.
 Secondly I give and bequeath to my son Brady Wood a certain tract or parcel of land upon which he the said Brady Wood now lives. Beginning at a stake at the end of the same running with the fence South to R. B. Evans North Boundary thence East with said line to a post East it being the South East Corner of my land thence North to the old turnpike road thence West with the road to the beginning thirdly I give and bequeath to my wife Elizabeth all her personal property Mary E. Wood Rachel Henry, A. J. Harris and J. O. Harris