John B. Bright & John B. Bright being of sound mind and good memory do hereby make and hereby publish this my last Will and Testament hereby Swearing all other Wills and Codicils by me heretofore made.
 I then I give and bequeath unto my beloved Mother Ann and if Bright of Lincoln County Tennessee all property of every description real - real personal during this or after at life time to her own use giving to her the power after my death to appropriate any amount she may in her discretion see fit to defray my funeral expenses and the erection of a tomb stone or monument over my grave and after the death of my Mother the said Ann Bright I give and bequeath absolutely unto my Brother Don Bright the entire remainder of my estate including every description of property what so ever. But in case my said Brother Don Bright should die before my Mother Ann and if Bright or should die without issue of her own body then in this case my wish is that Dr Lewis Hutcheson should take all of my property in the same manner as provided above for Don Bright after Mother Ann and if Bright's death
