

July Term 1876, the Last Will & Testament of John Hadley & John Hadley a resident and Citizen of Franklin County Tennessee dying sick in body but sound in mind & understanding the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death make this my last Will & Testament in Franklin County State of Tennessee and this Twenty Seventh day of January in the year of our Lord eight hundred and seven hereby revoking all other Wills & Testaments heretofore made by me: On the first place commit my body to the ground & my Soul in the hands of the God that gave it, Spring in the Communion of the Episcopal & looking for a joyful resurrection through the atonements of Jesus Christ & hereby give and bequeath that tract of land whereon I reside containing one thousand and twenty acres more or less to Susanah my Wife during her Natural life together with tract of Mountain Land lying on the South side of the above named tract containing five hundred acres more or less to the same said Susanah during her Natural life & I hereby also give & bequeath to my said Wife Susanah all the tract of Mountain Land containing one hundred acres more or less lying North of my residence to those and to their heirs said Susanah during her life as aforesaid. And I also give & bequeath to the same my Wife Susanah all my personal property on the Farm on which I now reside said Farm be the same above bequeathed said person at property consisting in Horses Sheep Cattle Farming utensils &c to have and to hold to the said Susanah forever & I hereby give and bequeath to my said Wife Susanah all my personal property consisting of notes Bonds & obligations due me to become due to have and to hold unto my said Wife Susanah forever at the death of my said Wife Susanah the land above bequeathed shall be divided among our children & their descendants then surviving July Term 1876 to have and to hold to said heirs forever. I hereby give and bequeath to my son William H. Hadley & his heirs the tract of land lying in Coffee County containing one hundred and forty three acres more or less one half to each as heretofore divided to have and to hold forever provided that so long herebefore sold the above named tract to the said Thurgood & his heirs & assigns for the sum of One thousand dollars to be paid by each of them as they are now indebted to me for said debt & hereby desire and direct that each of them shall be entitled to a full and to the said property upon the payment of half the sum viz, five hundred dollars apiece & if any payments have been made herebefore of them on their portions of the land it shall be credited on the five hundred dollars the purchase money of the land. Witness my true hand and in the Judgment and direction of my Wife I do much I have left the care and Control of my wife and lands: I do this because she has been faithful and devoted to me as a wife and has borne a faithful and devoted mother to her children and I am confident to leave them under God to her knowing that she will do what is right in the whole matter. Witness my hand and seal this 10th day of June in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and seventy six.

Amos Budge J. J. Almonathy Jno B. Elliott
 Milton Jones H. H. Chilcat

John Budge

July Term 1876: Then the Last Will and Testament of John Budge was presented in open Court for probate in the Common form. Thereupon came Milton Jones one of the Subscribers to said Will who being duly sworn deposed and said that he was personally acquainted with the Testator in his life time, that he signed and acknowledged said Will in the presence of his last Will and Testament and on the day it bears date. That he was of sound mind and disposing memory at the time he signed the same and he signed his name there to as a witness in the presence and at the request of the testator. Whereupon it was ordered by the Court that said Will be recorded as the law directs. Given under my hand at office this July 10th 1876

Amos Budge Clerk.

State of Tennessee J. J. Almonathy of the State Franklin County J. J. Almonathy of the State and despoising mind to himself or claim the following as my last Will and Testament (To wit) I give to my husband J. J. Almonathy and to my children Henry J. Almonathy and John Almonathy and I do all the land I possess to be divided as nearly as possible equally among them. To my husband I give that portion of my land on which my family now reside at the death of my said husband I Will that his portion of land be divided equally among my children named above. But during his life time I Will that he may enjoy and control all the land and personal property for the benefit of himself and my children named above as formerly. But as the children come of age or marry I Will that if they desire their portions of land be assigned to them for their separate use I Will that appurtenance of the lands assigned my children