J. L. Basler

I Joseph L. Basler do make this my Last Will and Testament in I give to my wife Lucretia a ^{and} during her natural life all my property of every description to be used as may be necessary for the support of herself and the two youngest children of the said Joseph. She is to be the trustee of said two children and as such may sell any part of the property when it is necessary for their support, or for her own support of which she is to be the Judge. If Joseph arrives at lawful age or marries a child is to take place and he is to have has part said off to him. Should my wife die leaving the surviving her the trust herein created is to be devolve upon such of my sons as may be living and of lawful age and they or the survivors of them are requested to act as Trustees or Guardians of the property of her and her property with full power to do whatever may be necessary in the premises trusting alone to her interest. The object and meaning of this Will is that my wife and the two children above named shall take the whole of my Estate as Joint Tenants and not as tenants in common with the trust imposed upon my wife as aforesaid and full power to manage and control the Estate and to sell and convey. If Joseph he attains his majority or marries the trust aforesaid which may devolve upon my sons is intended only to devolve upon the three sons which are now of lawful age John James and William who are the survivors of whom will act
