Mary Ann & I Mary Ann and I have having a separate estate consisting of lands negroes & other personal property and we are desirous to make a testamentary disposition of all that of to take effect at my death in case I should die before my husband B. F. McGhee not however to take effect if he should die first. So make this my last Will & Testament 1st I give that all of my property real & of every kind I give to my husband

B. F. McElhee for and during his life subject to a charge of a debt what my said husband owes to Mrs. Annumington and which debt what it is in as far as provided it is not properly extinguished must be paid out of the property as given before my said husband can take the same due at the death of my said husband & that that all of my said property or at least what remains shall be equally divided between my Brothers & Sisters Mrs. Annumington John H. Williams and my nephew William Williams son of John H. Williams and father of William Williams. That is one third to Mrs. Annumington one third to Sarah Ann Williams and one third to said William Williams & in case the creditors of B. F. McElhee or any other person or persons shall interfere with said property and deprive the said McElhee of the possession of said property then and in that case said property or so much thereof as shall be thus interfered with shall at once go to the next in said Mrs. Annumington Sarah Ann Williams and William Williams as if the said McElhee was dead and they shall have the right to take the same considering that it is my request simply a request that they will let the said McElhee
