

possessed of to my much beloved Wife Lou Ann Gilliam after my death I therefore declare this to be my last will and testament revolving and bequeathing all others either written or verbal And I give ^{and} bequeath to my much beloved Wife all my lawful estate in the lot of land belonging to me with all the here detamments & appurtenances thereto belonging or appertaining I will also that A. Gilliam pay to my Wife Eighteen Dollars that he owes me for corn with all Charges & Interest that may be due or coming to me hereafter should there be any, In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal at this 20th Nov^r 1864 2nd
L. M. Brauman J. Long Jackson Lee } William Gilliam that the last will and testament of R. H. Featherston was presented to court in Salem for probate where as duly proven by the oaths of J. J. Albemarle and J. M. Locksmith two of the subscribing witnesses thereto as ordered to be recorded as follows

July Term 1869
I Richard H. Featherston during having myself of sound & disposing mind do in near prospect of death declare & make the following will and testament viz. to my beloved Wife Louisa I will and bequeath that Portion of my Land lying between the Locksmith & Daley Road that the same be divided to contain from one hundred and fifty to two hundred acres of Land with the exception of two acres adjoining the same upon the North side of the Locksmith Road I also will and bequeath said Wife Louisa one or eight acres of Land lying on the South side of the Locksmith Road including the Horse Lot land I also will and bequeath to my Wife Louisa all my house hold & Kitchen Furniture and so on of my money after the debts due from & to me are paid as may be left after paying to my other heirs the sums herein after bequeathed I also will and bequeath to said Louisa so much of my line estate as may be necessary for her as also a sufficiency of corn for & other necessaries for one year support of the said stock such as mules Horses cattle sheep & hogs I will and bequeath to my said Wife such as she may herself select to remove to her home that I will two thousand dollars in money in addition to which I bequeathed her an equal share of one of all my remaining property " To my son Ch. T. Atkinson I will ~~bequeath~~ ^{bequeath} the tract of land on which the now lives known as the 2^d Warren tract containing about 75 acres & also an equal share of the remainder of my property to my son Richard & I have advanced two thousand dollars worth of property and I now will ~~bequeath~~ ^{bequeath} to him an equal share of my property " To my daughter Susan Lushan I will ~~bequeath~~ ^{bequeath} the tract of four acres from J. M.

July Term 1869

 Elders containing about 96 acres also an equal share of my other property " To my daughter Fanny Julia I will ~~bequeath~~ ^{bequeath} two thousand dollars out of my money and the notes owe me ~~also~~ ^{also} an equal share of my remaining property to my sons William ~~and~~ George I will ~~bequeath~~ ^{bequeath} all of my remaining lands lying on the south side of the Lockwood Road after deducting the six or eight acres therein before bequeathed my wife along I will ~~bequeath~~ ^{bequeath} to them as places for residence the two acres therein before reserved on the north side of the Lockwood Road " I also give to them an equal share of the remainder of my property done before us as witnesses J. H. Marshall J. H. Marshall } R. T. Atkinson

It is also my will that Daniel Lushan ~~and~~ my wife Fanny Julia be executors of this my will & Testament

Given my Term 1869 the Last Will & Testament of Daniel Marshall read as provided to be put for probate and duly proven by the oaths of J. H. Marshall & J. H. Marshall before the said J. H. Marshall to be recorded

August 4th day 1868

Fanny Lushan State of Tennessee " This is to certify that I Daniel Marshall have made my will as follows at or after my death I will give my son $20 - ~~two~~ ^{two} thousand dollars out of my estate ~~and~~ ^{and} I want her to live with my son Henry this life time & further I will Daniel Marshall give $500 fine dollars out of the same I want my wife Fanny Marshall to keep one horse or mule as she can pay for one cow and calf one head of stock and the other part in care of Marshall he comes of age or 21 years old the other property may be sold and the money put in care of Daniel Lushan as guardian until said Henry Marshall comes of age at which time the