I, Harriet Estelle a citizen of Franklin County in the State of Tennessee having heretofore made a will which is now unsatisfactory made so by intervening events hereby revoke the same & all other wills, this is now my will that it: I wish by no means wish to make any distinction with children any children they all equally dear to me but I have two single daughters Margaret & Jemima who are more helpless than my other children & I wish them to have whatever property or effects I may die possessed of whether real or personal with the following qualifications: I wish my son H. Estelle to have the use of my home place in Franklin County during his life before my existing came to my grand son Henry P. Bly or also wish him to have my gold spectacles & give my son J. Estelle my shooting apparatus: I wish my daughter Jemima to have my watch & the crown by son J. Estelle & wish his name engraved upon it I wish it may do as sheplem with it but should she die without disposing of it and in the life time of my little grand daughter Lily Estlin it shall go to the Father I wish the name of my son J. L.

Estlin to be engraved upon my pistols and then I wish my son J. L. Estlin to have them hoping he will never use them except in an honorable cause. The property given to my daughter is intended for their sole and separate uses though either of them my sons can turn the practice of medicine I desire him to have the use of my surgical instruments & medical books but in case either of them continues the practice of medicine of if he does when he ceases to use them if I should have a grand son practicing medicine that the Fathers may choose him or in case of two or more grand sons for being medicine then the right may be determined by the time of commencing practice the first in term having the right. I want the shot gun I received from J. L.
Estlin to go to my grand son Wallace Estlin son of J. L. Estlin and my other shot gun I give to Henry B. Colyer my grand son I appoint my grand son J. L. Estlin and my grand son A. B. Colyer to act as my Executors or either of them may qualify each in the absence of the other.
