 power by deed or will to dispose of said Land to one or more of her children so as to vest the entire estate in such child or children of the above named John B. and Littleberry Bostick or either of them or before their respective wives I hereby give the wife of the husband that may die the use of of the mansion house on the land devised to the husband and her household appurtenances and fifty acres of the improved land to cultivate and timber to support while he is residing by my Executors or such of them as may qualify and he having during the life time or widowhood of such child or as long as she may continue to reside thereon but should such child or widow or widow from the land the use and privilege hereby intended to be said and the Grand children who may be entitled to the same under one to have the entire use of mansion and benefit of the Land included in this bequest. 8 I leave to my wife during her life her choice negroes to be selected by her and at her death to go my five children John Littleberry Lucy Betsy Ann and Isaac to be equally divided among them the share allotted to Lucy Betsy Ann and Isaac to be for their separate use and not for the use of their husbands said children to have in the manner and with the power and limitations hereafter specified. I also leave to my said wife absolutely four negroes to be selected by her of our milk cows field cattle all my household and kitchen furniture farming utensils and laboring tools and cart and oxen all my sheep or as many as she chooses to marry of my boys as she chooses to keep and one year's provision sufficient to support herself negroes stock that is left her to be allotted by my Executors or such as may qualify hereafter and without that. But all of the above property not used or disposed of by my said wife is to go at her death to my said five children John Littleberry Lucy Betsy and Sally: 9 All my stock not herein before specifically bequeathed (my negroes excepted) I leave to be sold by my Executors hereafter named or such of them as may qualify on a credit of twelve months and the money arising therefrom to be applied to the payment of all my debts funeral expenses and other necessary charges and the balance to be ^{equally} divided among my five children John Littleberry Lucy Betsy and Sally. But if the crop that may be growing on my land at the time of my death is to be cultivated or sold I direct my Executors not to sell said stock (or such of it as may be necessary to sow the crop until the same is said "not to divide the negroes until such time and after said crop is sown I direct that the same except what I have bequeathed to my wife be sold on a credit of twelve months and the proceeds applied to the stock (that is sold is directed to be applied". 10 I also leave to my wife the debts due me and notes and money of any that I may have on hand at the time of my death after paying my debts funeral expenses and other necessary expenses. 11 I leave my daughter Lucy Austine two negroes Isaac and Hannah and her increase which I charged to be at nine hundred dollars which negroes the said Lucy now has on loan to Betsy to three thousand negroes Tony and her two children and their increase which negroes she now has on loan which I charge to her at five hundred dollars To Sally Hillis two negro Agg and her child and increase which negroes she now has on loan which I charge to her at five hundred dollars which negroes I leave to said Legatee respectively to their separate use and not to the use of their householders to take in the manner and with the limitations herein after mentioned and each of said legates one to account for said negroes when they come to receive their portions of the negroes here after directed to be divided and the said negroes may die they are still to account for them at the sums aforesaid. All the balance of my negroes not specifically bequeathed I leave to be divided among my five children John Battelby Lucy Batay and Sally to take with the powers and limitations herein after mentioned and negroes one to be divided into five lots by four commissioners selected by my Executors or such as may qualify for that purpose and then my said five children one to draw lots for choice and they shall pick the most valuable lots one to account to the others so that they shall be equal in the division 12th Let John B. Battelby home to my station at one thousand dollars and home take his obligation then he shall pay the sum for the horse or account for that sum. when comes to receive his part of my estate now it is understood that John B. Battelby shall account for that sum in the sum I do not collect it when he comes to receive his portion of the personal property herein bequeathed to him and he is to pay it either in money or the property he may receive under this will and the proceeds to be equally divided among my five children the taking an equal part with the rest and should he pay in property he is to pay at the valuation at which he receives it as estimated by the Commissioners before mentioned In like manner Lucy Battelby is to account for and pay nine hundred dollars Batay Hillis six hundred dollars and Sally Hillis five hundred dollars being the value of the specific bequest left to them and should I make any further advancements to any of my said five children they are to account for and pay them in like manner and after each child shall have accounted for and paid his advancements into a common fund then said fund is to be divided into five equal lots or portions of my children before mentioned one lot for choice of said advancements should be paid in money then the money to be equally divided and said five children are not to receive or be indebted to the legates before mentioned under the seventh article of this will until they account for and pay said advancements. In dividing and drawing for lots under this article of the will one or more should draw lots more valuable than the others by reason of the commissioners not being able to make the lots exactly of the same value then he that gets the most valuable lots is to account to the others so that they shall all be equal the commissioners who are to make the allotments are to be selected by my Executors or such as may qualify and when the property which I have left to my wife during her life comes to be divided among my children it is in like manner to be divided into lots by commissioners and they are to draw for choice under the rules before printed. If any of said five Legates should die before me the the leguats and Legates here be leguatted to them is not to sapre Blest to go to the children of such Legates who are to represent their ancestors. 13 after all my personal property shall thus be allotted and divided out and each of said Legates shall get his part in equally numbered by only him or a counts of abanments I then will and doeth that said five Legates shall take the negroes that are leguatted to them or that may fall to their lot in the following manner and with the following Limitations. The negroes that the said John and Littlebury may get are leguatted to them during life or so long as they continue in possession thereof with when and out to the children of the parents who held the said Estate. Should they be deprived of the lawful possession the right and interest of those in remainder are to commence as tho they should die. The negroes here leguatted or may fall to the lot of my three Daughters are to be for their respective separate uses and not for the use or benefit or to be under the control of their respective husbands during the lives respectively of my said Daughters with remainder over to the children of my said Daughters respectively. But I give to my said children respectively the power to dispose of the negroes they may receive at any time before their death by deed or will to such one or more of their children if they should thus prefer to do so as that the children they may hereafter as those that are now born so as to vest the entire estate in such child or children.

 14 In the foregoing Article where I have disposed of Land and Negroes to my children it is understood that I include only such issues as is legotten in lawful wedlock. It is also understood that if the Parents does not dispose of the Land or negroes before the particular estate is determined all the children of the parents then are living at the death of the Parents as well those now born as those that shall be born hereafter are to have the estate equally shared and share alike and should any of said Grand Children die leaving children such children are to represent their Parents and to take said parts as their Parents would be entitled to of living. 15 I hereby appoint my son John B and Littlebury Executors and my Daughters Lucy Austell Betsey Ansell and Mary Thelie Executors and Administrators of my last will and Testament revoking all others that may have been and that this 16th day of January 1823.
