

wish his name engraved upon it I wish it may do as she pleases with it but should she die without disposing of it and in the life time of my little grand daughter Lily B. Estlin it shall go to the latter. I wish the name of my son J. L.
Estlin to be engraved upon my pistols. And then I wish my son J. L. Estlin to have them hoping he will never use them except in an honorable cause. The property given to my daughter is intended for their sole ^{and} separate uses though either of them my sons can turn the practice of the same to their own use. I have the use of my surgical instruments & medical books but in case either of them continues the practice of medicine or if he does when he ceases to use them if I should have a grand son practicing medicine then the latter may have them or in case of two or more grand sons for a practicing medicine then the right may be determined by the time of commencing practice the first in time having the right. I want the shot gun I received from J. L.
Estlin to go to my grand son Wallace Estlin son of J. L. Estlin and my other shotgun I give to Harry B. Bolyard my grand son I appoint my grand son J. L. Estlin Esq. my son in Law A. Bolyard to act as my Executor or either of them may qualify and act in the absence of the other.
