Will of Rice Moore Dec^r

Considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time it may happen - Rice Moore being of sound and perfect mind and memory, do make & publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following First - I give and recommend my spirit to God who gave it. Second My will is that my body be buried in a decent and Christian like manner. Third After my just debts are paid, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Elizabeth Moore all my real and personal estate, except in manner and form as hereinafter named (to wit) I give and bequeath to my son John Moore Eight acres of land lying on the northern boundary of the tract of land whereon I now live, Beginning Eight poles south of the beginning corner of said John Moore's entry thence westerly to my spring, including an half of said spring thence down said spring branch five poles, thence running west in a parallel line with the northern boundary line of said tract of land for compliments including said John Moore's dwelling house; I also give and bequeath to my said son John Moore the parcel of land which he claims, lying south of a line beginning on Peter Waddles Old corner, going a Spanish Oak and ash - running near an East direction to the conjunction of a creek and gulch; I give and bequeath to my son William Moore the fifty acre tract of land lying with the knob, which he claims. It is my wish that William Barham alias William Moore have one year schooling to be paid for out of the part of my estate left to my wife. At the death of my wife Elizabeth, it is my will that all the remainies of my real and personal estate hereby given ^{to her} be sold and the proceeds equally divided between my three daughters Nancy Morgan Elizabeth Mearns and Mary Mearns. I hereby appoint Charles May a lly and John Morgan sole Executors to this my last will and testament hereby (Part of the Sale of the Estate of Peter Hamilton Esq.

 Will of Adam Starnes Dec.

In the name of God Amen — I Adam Starnes of Granger County having been lingering under a complaint for some time and in my right mind, and calling to mind the frailty of human nature and the certainty of death — I constitute this as my last will and testament; My immortal part I give to God who gave it, my body to the Earth to be buried in a Christian like manner thereto by the morning of the resurrection when they will be again reunited and I wish all my honest debts to be paid and my wife Phoebe to have all her cloths in short all she brought with her here and a child's part with the rest of my children in all my personal and real Estate and one year's provision out of the stock that may be on hand I wish my children all to have an equal share in what little they may be, I would together to have one year schooling should he stay, I leave my two sons, Conrad and James H. Executors to the Estate believing they will do right, face not out by the way, I leave it to all your discretions you are being of age whether to make sale or divide it so as you are may think best, should you make a sale give 18 months or two year credit it will bring more — I wish Nathan to have one year schooling to be paid out of the Estate
