

RETURN.

Edmund Hendrix.

I Edmund Hendrix being of sound mind and memory do make this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all other wills by me at any other time made. To wit.

First

I will that all my just debts and burial expenses be paid first.

Secondly,

I will and bequeath to my Mother Judith Hendrix ~~my~~ farm I now live on to use as her own her life time and one year support of bacon and the hog I have in the pen.

Thirdly

I will all after paying my debts to be sold on a twelve month credit and the money divided between my two sons H. E. Hendrix and Ely E. Hendrix and after the death of my mother I want the farm sold and the money divided equally between them.

State of Tennessee Greene County.

This the 12th day of April, 1866

I Reminote and appoint William Morelock my Lawful Executor.

Signed Sealed in presence of us

Charles Bright
David H. Bright

Edmund Hendrix 