It being the twenty third day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eight I call to mind the frailty of man and uncertainty of death & make this my last will and Testament in the Name of God Almighty maker of Heaven and earth Amen. That is to say that first it is my will that I do leave John Renner and George Hue my Executors, then it is my will that my body shall be decently buried. Then, it is my will that all my lawfull debts shall be paid, then, it is my will that all the balance and every all of the balance of my estate shall be and remain to be in the hand of my wife Elizabeth Motie to dispose of as she shall think best so long as she shall remain my widow and if she shall get married to another man she shall then have but one third of what shall remain and the other two thirds shall be equally divided among all my children as they shall come of age in virtue hereof I do set my hand and Seal.

In the name of God Amen. I Nicholas Mays being in perfect mind and remembering it present but sick in body and knowing it to be the decree of the Decease God that all men must die I do hereby constitute and make this my last will and Testament a valid one all other wills that I have made and this to be my last will and Testament -

First I recommend my soul the merciful and Supreme God from whom it came and my body to the earth to be buried in Christian like manner and Decently. I do give bequeath to my loving wife Ann Mays all my estate both real and personal to be hers as long as she lives to raise her and my children on and to give the children as they come to the grace of maturity what she sees cause to give them and at her death to divide the balance of what she has amongst those children that lives with her at her death in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this ninth day of May 1808.

Nicholas Mays (Seal)
