

RETURN.

James Guin.

In the Name of God amen I James Guin of the County of Greene and State of Tennessee bearing to mind the mortality of my body and being of perfect mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament and dispose of my property in the following manner, Viz. I have given my obligations to my son John Guin and Evan Guin for certain pieces of land, therein mentioned which said pieces of land I give and bequeath to them agreeably to the boundaries named in said obligations. I have made an entry of thirty acres of land joining Adam Ely, on the South side of the ridge, Ten acres of which I give to John on the west side of the great road, and the remaining twenty acres to my son Evan. I give and bequeath to my son James Guin, all the land lying between the line of North Glass and a conditional line made and described in my obligation to my son John I further give my son James the best pair of fire irons in the house. I direct all my stock and farming utensils to be sold, and the money to be equally divided among my three sons John, Evan and James. I give and bequeath to my wife all the Laver had and kitchen furniture, to be enjoyed by her as long as she may live - and at her death I direct that it to be given to my daughter Elizabeth, that is one half to her and the other half to her daughter
