Margaret Larkum

In the Name of God Amen
 I Margaret Larkum widow of Green Country & Firstory South of the Ohio being in a weak and low estate of health ^{but} of perfect memory. Thanks to God for his mercies and having to mind the frailty of all time things and that it is appointed for all men to die I then give of faith. This is my last will and testament announcing and revoking all former wills whatever.

And first of all I commit my soul to God who gave it in full hope the same shall be restored to the body at the resurrection of the just and my body I commit to the dust to be buried at the discretion of my Executors and for such worldly goods as it hath pleased God to bestow on me I give and bequeath in the following manner.

In the next place I give all just debts to be paid and all just dues to be received by my Executors.
 Then I give and bequeath to my son James Larkum a certain obligation he gave for a ^{Tom out} he bought of me together with all accounts from him due to me.

Then I give and bequeath unto my daughter Agnes Kennedy all my bedding and wearing apparel except one new blanket and sheet to Margaret McLaughlin then the remaining property to me belonging I will to be put to sale by my Executors and one half of the same to be equally divided between
