Nathaniel Alexander

In the name of God Amen, I Nathaniel Alexander of the County of Greene and State of Tennessee, Preacher of the Gospel, being sound in mind and memory, but sensible of my mortality do make this my last Will and Testament.

I commit my immortal soul to God through the merits of Jesus Christ, and my body to the earth, to be buried in a decent but plain manner.

1. I order my funeral charges and all my just debts to be paid.

2. Whatever property, belonging to me, may then remain, I give to my father, James Alexander, Sen. of Madison County, State of Tennessee, excepting only Brown's Lectures on the Philosophy of the Mind, which I give to the Rev. Charles Coffin, in token of my affection for him and his family.

3. I commit my Manuscript Papers to the fatherly care of the Rev. Dr. Charles Coffin, to be disposed of at his discretion.

4. I appoint the Rev. Dr. Charles Coffin and W. David Farnsworth, to be the executors of this my will and I authorize them to collect what is due to me, and to pay all my just debts. -

In testimony hereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal, this 20th day of May, in the forty seventh year of the independence of the United States of America, and in the year of our Lord 1823
