First: I direct that my funeral expenses, all my just debts and all legitimate and proper expenses of administering my estate be paid out of the money which I have in bank and my other personal property, as soon as the amounts thereof are ascertainable.

Second: I direct that no part of the corpus of my estate, either personal real or mixed, be paid to any beneficiary sooner than three years after my death. This provision is made by me deliberately and advisedly and for reasons which I believe to be in the interest of the estate and the beneficiaries themselves.

Third: I give and bequeath to my granddaughter, Mrs. Lucille Hudson the sum of one dollar ($1.00) in money, the same to be paid to her by my executors after the expiration of three years from the date of my death.

Fourth: I give and bequeath to my grandson, Henry Douglas Lockhart the sum of one dollar ($1.00) in money, the same to be paid to him by my executors after the expiration of three years from the date of my death.

Fifth: I direct that any income on or from my estate during the first three years after my death, arising from interest on money in bank, be paid to my beloved daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cleo Lockhart, widow of my deceased son, Henry Lockhart, to be used by her for her own support and maintenance.

Sixth: I hereby give, bequeath and demise all the remainder and residue of my estate, of whatever nature and wherever situated to my said beloved daughter in law, Mrs. Oles Lockhart, the same to be taken into full possession and use by her at the end of three years after my death.

Seventh: I hereby appoint my daughter in law, Mrs. Oles Lockhart and Arthur R. Curtis of Coalbourn, Tennessee, as executors of this my last Will and Testament, and direct that they, and each of them, shall serve without bond. They jointly, shall have full authority to manage my estate during the first three years after my death. They may rent or lease my coal or timber lands upon royalty or stumpage ~~had~~ and they may sell any portion or all of my real estate if they can obtain prices which in their judgment justify leasing or sale and deposit the proceeds in a Bank, and in case of the deposit of monies received from rents, royalties, stumpage or sales, the interest income only shall be paid to Mrs. Oles Lockhart during the three year period next after my death, in exactly the same manner governing interest on money which I may have in Banks at the time of my death.

In case of sales by my executors, they shall deduct from the gross proceeds of such sales reasonable amounts for legal advice or other necessary and proper expenses incident to such sales.

My executors shall also have full authority to use such portions of the corpus of my estate as may be necessary to pay taxes and any other legitimate expenses which might be necessary to protect the estate during the three year period.

My income has decreased so much because investments made by lawyers in real estate has decreased so much in value that the interest collected is not sufficient to meet the needs of my household. Having to draw on the principal for support I fear I will not leave much property to will to my heirs.

After paying all debts, funeral and burial expenses I desire that whatever I may possess be divided among my living heirs.

The property now consists mostly of U. S. Bonds and some real estate.

It will be easy to divide the bonds at once, but I desire that my niece Sara Rayzor, be given One thousand Dollars more than the other heirs, because I wish her to serve as Executrix of my estate without bond. If she should not be living at my death, I desire that my nephew R. E. Cousar be appointed Executor without bond.

My heirs now living are my brother L. L. Cousar of Fort Lawn S. C. My nephew, R. E. Cousar of Fort Lawn S. C. Also A. Cousar and his two children Mary Jane Cousar, and Tom Jr. now of Fayetteville Ark. Sara Rayzor, my niece, her son Leard Rayzor, daughters A. Elizabeth Nora Wrenn, and Mary C. Rayzor. My niece Emogene Baber, of Spartanburg S. C. Grand nephew, Jens A. Christensen, of Munich Germany, and my Grand Niece, Nora Lee Christensen living now in America.

Francis B. Bigley a friend now living with me, is to be given One Thousand Dollars if she is still living with me at my death and is still unprovided for, having no home she can use this money to enter an old ladies Home, if she so desires.

I also bequeath to Dave Thomas and his wife Five Hundred Dollars, if they are still living with me and are still loyal. They have lived with me many years and this amount is given in token of my appreciation of their service.

My silver and jewelry also China is to be divided among my Nieces and Grand Nieces. My diamond pin is to be given to my niece Sara Rayson because of her great kindness and thoughtfulness of me. At her death this pin is to go to my Grand Niece and name-sake Nora Wrenn Rayson. The lavalier is to be given to my Grand Niece, Nora Lee Christensen, who is named for my husband, and myself. The three diamond rings are to be given to my other three Grand Nieces, and the remainder of my jewelry divided among my Nieces and Grand Nieces.

My heirs have permission to take any of the furniture, bedding and linen also any souvenirs they wish from the house.

The furniture is very valuable, being made of solid Oak, Walnut and Mahogany. The dwelling and all enclosed houses and land on the left side as you enter the grounds, also facing the Bluff, containing eighteen acres, more or less, I bequeath to the Board of Missions

Nora L. Wrenn

Both Home and Foreign, of the M.E. Church South, and Womans Missionary Council of the M.E. Church South, to be used jointly, as a Rest Home for tired workers of the Church home and foreign field. So many of them have no homes, especially when they return on furlough or are too old to return to the field to work.

I would like workers of other Protestant denominations entertained here whenever there is room for them.

A caretaker should be kept in the house or on the grounds always for safety of the property.

I feel that anyone staying in this invigorating climate cannot help being benefited, and it is so much nearer than Junaluska.

But if these Mission Boards do not care to own this home for this purpose or some other good cause, I wish it sold, as soon as possible, and the money divided between the Mission Boards.

The other twelve acres, more or less, on the right as you enter, also facing the Bluff, I wish the Executor to sell as soon as possible and the money divided among my heirs.

I wish to be buried in a steel vault by the side of my husband, G. L. Wrenn in the Cemetery at Monticello, the grave filled with rock and cement, to prevent its sinking. A neat marker similar to the one at my husband's grave placed for me.

As there will not be anyone to grow flowers or grass on the lot I would like the whole lot cemented.

I request that the Executor, after this is done to put One Hundred Dollars in U. S. Bonds, the interest to be used for keeping up this lot.

If Mr. E. G. Norwell is living and still an undertaker, I would like him to take charge of all preparations for my burial, which I wish to be as simple as possible. My love and blessings for you all.
