Last Will & Testament of L.J. Winton

I, L.J. Winton, being of sound mind and disposing memory and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

First, I hereby direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my executor out of any moneys I have at the time of my death, or the first moneys that come into his hands as such executor, just as soon as practical after my death.

Second, I have this day conveyed to three of my children, viz., Mrs. Essie Ross, Mrs. Jane Harry, and R.C. Winton, certain portions of my land, including all lying on the south side of State Highway no. 108, and I desire to give to my other two children, viz., Mrs. Rancee Cargile and Ralph Winton, all of my farm lying on the north side of said Highway no. 108.

To Mrs. Rancee Cargile I give, devise and bequeath all that portion of my said land lying north of said Highway no. 108.

Beginning in the right of way of said Highway at the corner of the home place of Ralph Winton, just westward from his residence, and running thence north or northward to a stake in the original north boundary line where a Chestnut tree fell across the fence, the log being now on the ground, and running thence west with said original line to Highway no. 108, and thence in a southwestward direction with the right of way of said Highway back to the beginning.

And to Ralph Winton I give, devise, and bequeath unto him the remainder of my land lying on the north side of State Highway no. 108.

Beginning at said corner in said right of way a short distance westward from his residence and running north or northward to said stake in the original north boundary line where said Chestnut fell across the fence and running thence east or eastward to a hickory, the northeast corner of said original tract; thence south with the original line to an iron pin or pipe set up in said line; and thence southwestward with the line of a ten acre tract to a stake at a branch, said Ralph Winton's corner; and thence with his line southwestward to the point of beginning.

But this bequest is made to Mrs. Rauer Cargile and to Ralph Winton subject to each of them paying Ten Dollars ($10.00) each on the bequest of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) which I am making to Juanita Winton, Leighton Winton, Carl Winton and Frances Winton; my other three children each to pay Ten Dollars ($10.00), making the amount of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) in all.

Third, I give and bequeath to my grand children, Juanita Winton, Leighton Winton, Carl Winton, and Frances Winton, the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) or Twelve Dollars ($12.50) each, this sum to be collected from each of my said children by my executor, he paying Ten Dollars and each of the other four children paying Ten Dollars ($10.00) so as to make Fifty Dollars ($50.00), the amount of this bequest, and in the event either of my said children now living should refuse to pay the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) for the benefit of my said grand children, then the bequest made to such child will be forfeited and any other child paying said amount will be substituted to that one refusing to pay and the bequest will go to him or her as the case may be. In other words, I want my five living children each to pay Ten Dollars ($10.00) for the benefit of my grand children, and any one refusing to do so shall not share in my estate, whether by will or by deed of this date.

Fourth, The personal property that I die seized and possessed of, I want it distributed as equally as possible among my five children, and I would like for them to agree to this, but in the event they cannot agree, then I direct my executor to make the division as equitably as possible.

Fifth, I name, nominate, and appoint my son R. C. Winton, as Executor of this, my last Will and Testament, and having confidence in his integrity, I request that he be allowed to administer on my estate without the necessity of making bond.

Sixth, If any one of my children should contest this will and undertake to set it aside for any reason, he or she would thereby forfeit all rights under the terms hereof and his or her share may be sold and the proceeds derived therefrom equally distributed among my other children.

In Witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand on this the 12th day
