Last Will and Testament of
"Euphemia Russell"

My Will

I, Euphemia Russell, being of sound mind, do hereby declare this to be my last will and testament.

I have sold my cottage, known as the Newsom Cottage at Montagle, Verm. to my niece Mary M^cRowland, who is to pay me four thousand dollars ($4000) for it in eight (8) notes, as evidenced by my deed to her and by her notes to me.

It is my wish that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be paid out of the proceeds of any of these notes that may remain unpaid at my death. In appreciation of her kindness and helpfulness
to me I release my niece, Mary M^cRowland, from the payment of two of these $500⁰⁰ notes, direct her to divide the remainder, if there be any, equally between my nieces, Margaret
M^cCullough and Ruth M^cCullough.

I bequeath to my nephew, Edward Walthour Russell, my cottage and the lots belonging to it, known as the Reppard Cottage at Montagle, Verm. to him, his heirs and assigns forever. And I appoint said Edward Walthour Russell, executor of my estate
without bond.

Signed this the 24th day of September 1923.

Euphemia Russell
Montagle, Verm.

On this the 24th day of September 1923,
the undersigned in the presence of said Euphemia Russell, who declared the above to be her last will and testament, where we could see her sign her name and she could see us sign our names, at her request did subscribe our names hereto as witnesses,

(Mrs) Virginia Keck
Blytheville, Arkansas
Mrs. A. M. Hight
Nashville, Tenn.
Sallie C. Battail

"Last Will and Testament of Robert Arnold
and wife Emma Dale Arnold."

In The Name of God, Amen.

Realizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, we Robert Arnold and wife Emma Dale Arnold of Tracy City, Grundy County, Tennessee, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our last Will and Testament, jointly made, this day, and hereby revoking and making void any other Will or Wills by either of us at any time made.

First: We direct that all our just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after the death of either of us as is practicable or convenient, out of any money's of which we, or either of us, die seized and possessed, or that may first come into the hands of the Executor of this Will.

Second: We do hereby give and bequeath to the survivor of us, all the property of every kind, character or description owned by the other at the time of such demise, both real, personal and mixed, wherever situated.

Third: We do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint the survivor of us as Executor of the will of the first deceased, without bond, as we have full confidence in the integrity and ability of the other to perform the duties of the trust by this Will imposed.

Witness our hands, at Tracy City.

Witness, this the 1st day of April, 1940

Robert Arnold
Emma Dale Arnold

Witness:

W. L. Abernathy
E. W. Cheek

We, W. L. Abernathy and E. W. Cheek do hereby certify that we signed the foregoing Will of Robert Arnold and his wife Emma Dale Arnold, present and at their request, and that they each signed the same in our presence and declared it to be their last will and Testament.

Last Will of Mrs Bertha Schild.

I, Mrs Bertha Schild, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and knowing the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and rendering void all other Wills by me made.

First, I direct that my Executor pay my funeral expenses and all my just debts as soon as practicable after my death out of any money left by me, or out of the first money that comes into his hands as executor of my estate.

Second, In the event my husband, Henry Schild, out lives me, I want him to have the possession of our home place in Tracy City, the remainder of his life, and at his death or at my death if I should out live him, I give, devise and bequeath unto my two sons, Willie E. Schild and Martin E. Schild, my home place in the Fourth Civil District of Grundy County, Tennessee, and bettered and bounded as follows, to-wit:

on the North by Sam H. Schild; on the East by Mill Street; on the South by Fred Abraham, and on the West by Red Row owned by Samuel Werner, Sr.

I also give and bequeath unto Willie E. Schild the following described personal property, to-wit:

One China Cabinet, One large oak mirror, One small table, And one leather couch, Book Case.

I give and bequeath unto Martin E. Schild, the following personal property, to-wit:

One side board, One large dining room picture, One music Cabinet, One small table, One dark bed room suite and my bedstead and bed, And one hall mirror and table.

Third. I give and bequeath unto my son, Sam H. Schild, one dining table and the dining chairs, One three piece oak bed room suite, One hall tree, Four leather back chairs, And one small table.

In this connection I desire to say that Sam H. Schild has heretofore had property given to him equal to that now given to Willie E. Schild and Martin E. Schild in value, and this is why I give the home place to Willie E. Schild and Martin E. Schild.

Fourth. I give and bequeath unto my grand daughter, Mary Katherine Schild, my diamond ring.

Fifth I give and bequeath unto my grand daughter, Barbara, my diamond brooch.

Sixth. I give and bequeath unto my brother C. E. Werner, my mother's mahogany table.

Seventh. The remainder of my property, linens, silver ware, etc., etc. I give and bequeath unto my three sons, Sam H., Willie E., and Martin E. Schild, and direct that they make the division among themselves as equally as possible.

Eighth. I name, nominate and appoint my son Martin E. Schild, my executor of this my last will and testament, and having confidence in his integrity, I ask that he be allowed to serve in this capacity without bond.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand on this the 16th day of June, 1936.

Mrs. Bertha Schild

Signed in the presence of the testator and at her request as subscribing witnesses, and in the presence of each other, on this 16th day of June, 1936.

Last Will and Testament of Martin Marugg

I, Martin Marugg, of Tracy City, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and rendering void all former wills and codicils by me at any time heretofore made.

Article I.

I direct that all of my just debts, including funeral expenses and expenses of my last illness be paid by my Executor as soon as convenient after my death.

I further will and direct that my said Executor pay all taxes due by my said estate, or that may become due by reason of the gifts, devises and bequests herein made and charge the same generally to my estate without attempting in any way to prostrate the same against any beneficiary herein named.

Article II.

It is my will and desire that no monies heretofore advanced or loaned, or any notes or evidence of indebtedness that I have or that may be found among my papers, due me, by George Will Schild, Lander Bouldin, Mildred Bouldin, Hilda Marugg, Emil Marugg, or any of my nephews and nieces or any of their children, be collected or an attempt made to collect

same. I give and bequeath the monies advanced or that may be owed me by George Will Schild, Lander Bouldin, Mildred Bouldin, Hilda Marugg, Emil Marugg, or any of my nephews and nieces or any of their children, to them and direct that my Executor cancel said indebtedness, should any exist, and mark same "Paid in full".

Article III.

I give and bequeath unto Miss Mina Litz of Tracy City, Tennessee, the sum of Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) in cash, and five (5) shares of my Dixie Telephone Company stock in recognition of her many years of faithful service to my family.

Article IV.

I give and bequeath unto Miss Jessie Ladd of Tracy City, Tennessee, three (3) shares of my Dixie Telephone Company stock in acknowledgment of her many years of efficient assistance to me in the office of the Dixie Telephone Company.

Article V.

All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal or mixed, of whatever character and wherever located, including all of my life insurance payable to my estate or legal representatives, I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter, Clara Marugg Chilton, for her sole, exclusive and separate use and benefit, to be hers absolutely, it being my expressed will that her present husband, to-wit, James G. Chilton, is to have no part of my said estate and to have no

(Page Two of my Will Martin Marugg)

Control or management of that part of my estate herein devised and bequeathed to my said daughter, Elsie Marugg Chilton

Article VI.

Should my daughter Elsie Marugg Chilton, die before I do, then and in that event the estate herein devised and bequeathed to her shall go to Elmer Cunningham and his wife, Eda Marugg Cunningham, now living in Fairfield, Alabama, in trust, however, for the following uses and trusts to wit:

Said trustee shall take, receive and hold all of the estate hereinabove bequeathed and devised to the said Elsie Marugg Chilton, should she predecease me, or above mentioned, of every character, kind and nature wherever located, as trustee for my grandson, Martin Marugg Chilton, and shall use the interest and if necessary, the corpus of said estate for the exclusive use and benefit of my said grandson, Martin Marugg Chilton. Said trustee shall take, receive and manage said estate and pay out what monies are necessary for the education, clothing, maintenance and general welfare of my said grandson Martin Marugg Chilton, until he reaches the age of twenty-one (21) years, at which time, the remainder of said estate in the hands of my said trustee shall pass to my ^{said} grandson, Martin Marugg Chilton, to be his absolutely.

(Page Three of my Will Martin Marugg.)

James T. Chilton, father of my said grandson, Martin Marugg Chilton, shall have no control or management or anything whatsoever to do with the estate created in trust herein for said grandson, Martin Marugg Chilton.

This section of my Will to be of no force and effect should I predecease my daughter, Elsie Marugg Chilton and should I die before the said Elsie Marugg Chilton, then in that event she is to take the said estate created for her under Article V of this my last Will and testament.

Article VII.

Should my daughter, Elsie Marugg Chilton and her son, Martin Marugg Chilton, predecease me, then in that event, it is my wish and desire and I hereby devise and bequeath unto my sister, Barbara Schild; my brother, George Marugg; and the children of my deceased brother Rudolph Marugg, that part of my estate created under Article V. of this Will, to be theirs absolutely, share and share alike. However, should I die before my daughter, Elsie Marugg Chilton, or my grandson, Martin Marugg Chilton, then in that event, the provisions of this Article and section of my Will are to be null and void and of no force and effect.

Page Four of my Will Martin Marugg.

Article VIII.

I hereby name, nominate and appoint W. J. Joest of Macy City, Tennessee, as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand on this the 20 day of October, 1939, and have also subscribed each of the foregoing four pages of this my last Will and Testament in the lower margin thereof for the purpose of identifying same as a part of my Will.

Martin Marugg

Signed by the said Martin Marugg
as and for his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who at his request, and in his sight and presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses
the day and date above written.

Last Will and Testament of
Mrs. Louise Baggenstos

I, Madeline Baggenstos, a widow,
resident in Macy City, Kennedy County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory,
and wishing to now make provision for the disposition of my property following my inevitable death, do hereby make, publish and ordain this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other and former wills and codicils thereto by me made at any time heretofore.

First I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my Executor out of the proceeds of my estate as soon after my death as may be practicable.

Second. I direct that my Executor take possession of all of my property, both real and personal, including the proceeds of any and all insurance policies which I may have at the time of my death, to pay all taxes legally assessed against any real estate which I may own, and to keep the same insured if necessary.

Third. To each of my six sons, to wit:
John J. Baggenstos, Robert W. Baggenstos,
Hunt C. Baggenstos, Charles W. Baggenstos,
Herbert C. Baggenstos, and Albert E.

Baggenstos, I devise and bequeath a one-sixth undivided share of my one-seventh undivided interest in and to the real and personal property of the Baggenstos Bakery, located at Macy City, Tennessee, and in the event that any one or more of the said six sons should predecease me then and in that event the share which would have accrued to the said deceased is hereby devised and bequeathed to natural heir or heirs at law of the said deceased, if there be any living, or if there be no natural heir or heirs at law then living surviving the said deceased then this devise and bequest shall descend to the collateral heirs at law of the deceased. Provided: That so long as the said Baggett's Bakery shall continue to be operated under the majority ownership of any of my said six sons that this devise and bequest shall be retained in and as a part of the general assets of the said Bakery.

Fourth. The Baggett's Bakery is indebted to me in a sum of money accrued to my personal credit therein and by me temporarily allowed to be commingled with the assets of the said Bakery. From this fund I will and bequeath to my sister or her wife of Jacob Wilchell, the sum of five hundred dollars, and I will and direct that my heirs at law shall deliver to my Executor, out of the said fund, the said Five Hundred Dollars, for the said purpose. I further will and direct that the remainder of the said fund be included in the assets of the said Bakery and that it be treated as a part of the general assets thereof.

Fifth. I will and direct that my Executor sell all of my household goods and furnishings, giving preference first to my said sons should they or any of them wish to purchase any item or articles of the said goods and furnishings.

Sixth. I will and direct that my Executor sell my Peary City residence property, the same being my home place where it now resides, and which is bounded on the north east by Warner, south-east by Railroad Street, south-west by Oak Street, and north-west by State Highway No. 56, and out of the proceeds of the said sale I will and direct that my Executor pay all my just debts, funeral expenses, and the costs of the execution of this my last will; and I hereby expressly authorize my Executor to make, execute and deliver a deed conveying the above property by good indefeasible title to the purchaser thereof.

Seventh. To my grandchildren living at the time of my death I will and bequeath the proceeds of my One Thousand Dollar Life Insurance Policy equally divided among them, share and share alike.

Eighth. I will and direct that after the terms and provisions of this my last Will have been fully complied with, that my Executor shall equally divide the remainder of my personal estate and distribute it in equal parts one part each to each of my said six sons or in the event any one or more of the said six sons should predecease me then division and distribution is to be made to the heirs of the deceased as is provided for, in such an event, in the third paragraph of this my last will and Testament.

Ninth. If any person legatee or devisee shall directly or indirectly contest or dispute any provision in this Will, either before a probate Court or before any judicial body, or call in question before any Court or Tribunal the provisions of any bequest, devise, bequest or other provision herein, then and in that event I revoke all provisions in this Will

made in his or her behalf and declare the same void and of no effect, and I give said legacy, devise, bequest or provision so bequeathed to the other legatee
or devisee not so contesting my said will, share and share alike.

Yeneth I hereby nominate and appoint H.B. Eastman an attorney at law to be Executor of this my last will and testament and I direct that he be excused from making bond as such Executor and in the event that the said H.B. Eastman is unable, for any reason, to serve as such Executor
then and in that event I nominate and appoint W.B. Chennethy an attorney at law to be the Executor of this my last will and testament, and I direct that he be excused from making bond
as such Executor.

Cloveneth
