

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my signature to this will, which is made and executed in duplicate, the duplicate copy being in the hands of my Attorney, A. S. Barger, Chattanooga, Tennessee, and which is to be used with the same effect as the original in the event the original is misplaced, destroyed, or otherwise unavailable at my death.

This the 8th day of March, 1966.

JAMES LILLARD PATTON
TESTATOR

The foregoing instrument, executed in duplicate by the Testator, consisting of two (2) pages or sheets of paper, written upon one side only, each page identified with my signature, signed sealed, published, declared and acknowledged by the Testator JAMES LILLARD PATTON, to be his last will and testament on this the 8th day of March, 1966, in our presence and we thereupon, at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other, signed our names hereto as attesting witnesses, believing the said JAMES LILLARD PATTON, to be, at the time of subscribing our names, as aforesaid, of sound mind and disposing memory.
