COMPARED

To whom it may concern--

I, Ethel I. Leatherman-Andrews, being in sound mind, do hereby write my last will and testament, appointing my son Samuel Richard Leatherman as executor, without bond, for my estate. His decisions in handling same estate, are not to be questioned by any one concerned, in any way.

Everything I die possessed of, I leave to my five children, share and share alike - with the exception of the twenty five thousand dollars cash, which I received as my part from the sale of my property, known as 1460 Union Ave. Memphis, Tennessee, which sum is to be equally divided among my two daughters, Anne Leatherman Grant and Irwin Leatherman Magevney and my two sons, Samuel Richard Leatherman and William Abbey Leatherman.

Mary Abbey Leatherman Joyner having already received her portion of the sale price of that afore named property.

All other interest of mine, both real and personal, I leave equally to my five children.

I, Louie E. Hawley, being of sound mind, do this day, make my will,
Oct. 20th. 1947.

To Lucille my neice, I leave all my jewelery, except the square diamond ring I give to Mary Nickles Powell for a good reason. I star pin, 1 diamond bar pin, 1 diamond locket and chain; 1 amherest pin, 1 bracelet, Ruby cross pin, swiss watch, gold opera glasses married beet pin, with coat of arms of North Carolina.

All out glass- gold band china teaset of my Mothers. All silver, the famous painting "Bunch of Hairs", I have already given Lucille white. It was a family painting of hers belonged to my family for generations. I have left 214 Grove St house in Montgomery, to Mary Powell. She has been so very good to me. The cottage at Monticello, I leave to Richmond Nickles, who has been more than generous, and kind, the cottage as it stands, furnished complete. The two walnut chairs in sitting- room. Lucille asked me 10 or 12 years to give her, when I was through with them, also the tall glass vase, with enameled tigers on it to Lucille.

I want Lucille White, of 903 Nicholas St. Henderson, N. Carolina to take all of my personal things out, before it is turned over to Richmond. I want Mrs. Wade Powell of Birmingham, Ala. to attend to my last wishes, and see I am put at rest by the side of my beloved husband.

{ LAST WILL & TESTAMENT OF }
 { Mrs. Pearl S. King- }

I, Pearl S. King, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and knowing the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, do hereby make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking and rendering void all former wills by me made.

First. I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my death as practicable, out of any moneys that I may have on hand at the time of my death, or out of the first money that comes into the hands of my Executor as a part of my estate.

Second. I give, devise and bequeath to my five children, namely: Earle K. Hobbs, Maie K. Carroll, Truman S. King Borg (daughters), Buford I. King, Carmon F. King (sons) and Maie K. Thomas, a grand daughter, all my property, real, personal and mixed, and wherever located or situated, share and share alike.

My reason for giving my grand daughter, Maie K. Thomas, an equal share in my estate with my own children is the fact that I raised her from a child, and I would be ungrateful if I did not remember her in my will, and should she or any of my children die before I die, leaving children, then in that event, said children shall have the share that their father or mother would have had if living at the time of my death.

Fourth. I hereby name, nominate and appoint Herman Sanders as my Executor, and I hereby request the Court to confirm this appointment, after my death, and having full confidence in his honesty and integrity, it is my wish that he be allowed to serve without the necessity of making bond.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my signature, on this the 19th day of March, 1949.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, Wm. Morrow and Laura Morrow, husband and wife, each being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and declare this instrument as and for our joint Last Will and Testament, revoking any former Last Will and Testament made by us, and dispose of the property owned by us or either of us at death, as follows:-

1. On the death of either, the survivor shall take and hold all the real and personal estate owned by us and the personal and real estate owned by the deceased one of us for and during the life-time of the survivor with the survivor having the power and authority to handle and dispose of the same as in their survivors judgment is proper, and to use the same for the survivor's benefit and needs.

2. On the death of the survivor of the two of us, we devise to Hugh Hobbs, subject to the provision hereinafter contained, certain lands in the First Civil District of Grundy County, Tennessee, described as follows:

First Tract: The south side of our lands known as McMichael lands, which said south side lies south of a line beginning at the Layne Bridge on the East, thence running with the ditch west to the creek, thence line being the North boundary line of the south part of the McMichael land, containing about 70 acres.
Second Tract: Twenty-eight acres, more or less, of not quite land conveyed to us by Frank McMichael about 15 years ago.

This devise is made upon condition the said Hugh Hobbs has stayed on the farm with us as long as we live. We give the said real estate to Hugh Hobbs because he has been a faithful hand with us through the years.

3. We set aside the sum of $2,000.00 to pay our funeral expenses, being $1,000.00 each.

4. At the death of the survivor of the two of us, the personal property owned by us, and the real estate owned by us, and any personal and real estate owned by either of us, less the devise to Hugh Hobbs at No. 2 above, shall be sold by the executors, hereinafter named, at such time or times and terms as they deem best, all to be disposed of within two years after the death of the survivor. The proceeds of the sale or sales of property, together with all other assets of our estates, shall be divided into equal parts. One part shall be divided equally, share and share alike, among the living nephews and nieces of Wm. Morrow. The other part shall be divided equally, share and share alike, among the living nephews and nieces of Laura Morrow.

5. We nominate and appoint Raymond Hooper, Hermon Morrow and Hugh Hobbs as the joint Executors of this Last Will and Testament, and excuse them from the necessity of bond unless bond is requested by the majority of those who shall receive a part of our estate under No. 4 above.

We desire that the main responsibility for administering upon the estate to be upon Raymond Hooper with Hermon Morrow and Hugh Hobbs advising and assisting him. The said executors shall receive such compensation for their services as shall be reasonable and proper.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I Willard Petty, being of sound mind, now temporarily residing in the State of New Jersey, legally domiciled in Tracy City, Grundy County, Tennessee, and now in the active military service of the United States, do hereby make, publish and declare this instrument as my last will and testament.

1. I hereby revoke all prior wills and codicils of me at any time heretofore made.
2. I direct that all my funeral expenses and lawful debts be paid.
3. I do hereby give, devise and bequeath unto Mary C. Petty, my mother, all of my estate, both real, personal, and mixed, wherever and whatsoever, of which I may die seized or possessed, or to which I may be entitled at the time of my decease, absolutely and forever, in fee simple.
4. I hereby appoint Mary C. Petty, my mother, as my executrix and I direct that she be permitted to serve without bond and that no proceedings be had with reference to my estate except such as may be legally essential.
5. I authorize and empower my executrix, if and whenever in the settlement of my estate she shall deem such action advisable, to sell at private or public sale, at such price as she shall consider proper, the whole or any part of my real, personal or mixed estate, and to execute good and sufficient deeds and other instruments necessary or proper to convey and transfer the same to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and such purchaser or purchasers shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal in the State of New Jersey, this 6 day of January, 1944.

(LAST WILL &amp; TESTAMENT)

I, DAVID W. HOWARD, a resident of Grundy County, Tennessee, desire this to be my Last Will and Testament. I hereby revoke all wills heretofore made by me.

I devise my house and lot in Palham to my daughter, Rose H. Bonner, upon the condition that she pay one-third of the fair value of this property at my death to her brother and one-third to her sister.

If my son and two daughters cannot agree upon the amount she is to pay to each of them, they shall select some competent, fair-minded person or persons to fix the amount of money she is to pay to each of them.

I give, bequeath and devise the rest and residue of my estate, of every kind and character and wheresoever situated, to my three children in equal shares.

I wish them to make the division in such manner as they may determine.

Should any of my children predecease me, he or she shall be represented by his or her descendant or descendants.

I appoint my son, David W. Howard, Jr., as executor of this will and request that he be permitted to qualify as such without bond and that he not be required to file any inventory, final settlement or other accounting in any Court.

If he should for any reason fail to accept this appointment, I wish his two sisters to act as executrices in his stead without bond and without being required to file inventory or final settlement in any court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name, this 16 day of Dec., 1950, and for the purpose of identification, I have written my name on the margin of the preceding page.

D. W. Howard

The foregoing instrument was this day in our presence declared by the Testator, DAVID W. ## LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF MRS. GERTRUDE TIDMAN

I, Mrs. Gertrude Tidman, of Tracy City, Grundy County, Tennessee, do hereby publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills heretofore by me at any other time made.

ITEM I

I hereby nominate and appoint my sons, J. Haskell Tidman and James B. Tidman, as Executors of this my last will and testament, and I direct that they not be required to give bond as such Executors. In the event that one of my sons should predecease me, or in the event, through some incapacity, one of them should not be able to act, I name and appoint the remaining son as Executor, also with a similar provision that he not be required to give bond as such Executor.

ITEM II

I give, devise and bequeath to my children, Haskell, James, Gertrude and Mary, all of my palpable personal effects of which I may die seized and possessed, such as jewelry, household furniture and other articles of a purely personal nature and for personal use, which articles may be divided among them in such a manner as they may agree upon. If any of my said children shall predecease me it is my desire and wish that the aforesaid mentioned property be divided, as above stated, among the surviving children.

ITEM III

I will, devise and bequeath all the rest and residue of my estate real, personal and mixed wheresoever situated and located, including the proceeds of all life insurance policies, which may be payable to my estate, to my said children, Haskell, James, Gertrude and Mary in equal shares. I direct, however, that the share going to Gertrude shall not be paid outright to her at the end of the administration, but shall be disposed of in the following manner, to-wit:

1. That portion of my estate belonging to my daughter, Gertrude, shall go to and be held by my sons, J. Haskell Tidman and James B. Tidman, as Trustees, or in the event that one of my sons should predecease me or one of them should be unable to act as Trustee on account of some incapacity, shall go to the remaining son, as Trustee, for the following uses and purposes, to-wit:
2. The income from this trust is to be paid to my daughter, Gertrude, for and during her life.
3. Said Trustees shall manage, care for and protect the trust fund according to their best judgment and discretion and shall have power to invest and reinvest the same in good, income-producing securities; however, they shall be restricted to those investments which are now or may hereafter be eligible for trust funds in the State of Tennessee. The Trustees may retain as investments for this trust any securities which may become a part of the trust fund as the result of distribution of my estate, and the above restriction confining investments to legal investments is qualified to this extent.
4. Neither the principal nor the income of the trust fund shall be liable for the debts of any beneficiary hereunder, nor shall the same be subject to the seizure by any creditor or any beneficiary under any writ or proceeding at law, and no beneficiary hereunder shall have any power to sell, assign, transfer, encumber or in any other manner to anticipate or dispose of his or her interest in the trust fund or the income produced thereby.
5. The Trustees are not required to qualify or to make reports or statements to any court, but they shall submit a complete report showing the condition of said trust fund at least once a year, and shall at all times keep such records which may be open for inspection by the beneficiaries.
6. The Trustees, with the approval of my daughter, Mary, shall have discretionary power to encroach upon the corpus of the trust fund for the welfare of my daughter, Gertrude, and/or for the welfare, education and support of her children, and it shall not be necessary to obtain a decree of any court for this purpose. It is my whole thought and purpose in this paragraph to permit the Trustees (with the aforesaid approval of my daughter, Mary) to do any and all things which they, in their discretion, think is for the best interest and well-being of my daughter and/or her children, and which they think I would do in the event I were living.

7. I own, at the present time, a homeplace in Tracy City, Tennessee, and I make the following suggestion for the consideration of those concerned. In the event my daughter, Gertrude, should like to have this homeplace as a part of her share in my estate it is my desire that she have it; however, with the understanding that title to said homeplace shall be held by the Trustees hereunder named and its disposition handled in the same manner as any other investment belonging to the trust, it being understood that the Trustees shall have the right to sell and convey said property should my daughter, Gertrude not desire to live in said homeplace or to retain it, in which case the proceeds shall become a part of her trust.

8. Upon the death of my daughter, Gertrude, it is my will that this fund shall go to and be equally divided among such of her children as survive her. In the event she is not survived by children, the remainder of said trust to pass to my heirs-at-law.

I make this trust to you, Gertrude, after a great deal of deliberation. As my daughter I love you and your children, and it is for this reason that I have resolved to establish this trust in your favor, in order that you may be protected from want or need and to preserve for you that share of my estate to which you are rightfully entitled. I hope that you will understand, and, too, I trust that Ward will not consider this as any reflection upon himself, for none is intended. I wish you both much happiness.

It is my desire that the administration of my estate and/or trust shall be as free from technicalities and expense as possible, and I, therefore, direct and authorize my four children, or those living at the time any question arises regarding my intent and wishes as herein expressed, to resolve any ambiguity, real or fancied, in the provisions of this will relative to my estate and/or trust, and to authorize the Executors and/or Trustees to take or refrain from taking any action or making any payment, and the Executors and/or Trustees and all parties dealing with the Trustees and/or Executors may rely upon such written resolution of ambiguity or upon such written direction as fully and to the same extent as if same were contained in this will.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand at Tracy City, Tennessee, this 5th day of February, 1940.

Gertrude K. Tidman

We, the undersigned, being requested so to do by the testator, Gertrude Tidman, witnessed the foregoing as her last will and testament by subscribing our names hereto in her sight and presence and in the sight and presence of each other.

CODICIL.

I, Mrs. Gertrude Tidman, of Tracy City, Grundy County, Tennessee, do hereby publish this as a codicil to my will dated February 5, 1940.

I

That portion of my estate belonging to my son, James B. Tidman (after deducting amounts due me by him) shall be held in trust by my son, J. Haskell Tidman, as Trustee, for the following uses and purposes, to-wit:

(a) My reason for leaving my son, James B. Tidman, a part or portion of my estate in trust is that I am extremely anxious that he have some fund which may be in the nature of a reserve for him.

(b) I further desire that this said trust shall be held by my son, J. H. Tidman, as Trustee, for and until my said son James B. Tidman arrives at the age of fifty years. Prior to my son, James B. Tidman, reaching his 50th birthday, he shall receive the income from said trust.

(c) In the event of his death before the termination of this trust, I direct that the Trustee hereunder shall hold said fund for the benefit of and for the maintenance, support and education of any children surviving my son, James B. Tidman. If this latter contingency should occur where the Trustee hereunder is handling this fund for any child or children of my son, James B. Tidman, the income or principal from said fund shall be used and

7. I own, at the present time, a homeplace in Tracy City, Tennessee, and I make the following suggestion for the consideration of those concerned. In the event my daughter, Gertrude, should like to have this homeplace as a part of her share in my estate it is my desire that she have it; however, with the understanding that title to said homeplace shall be held by the Trustees hereunder named and its disposition handled in the same manner as any other investment belonging to the trust, it being understood that the Trustees shall have the right to sell and convey said property should my daughter, Gertrude not desire to live in said homeplace or to retain it, in which case the proceeds shall become a part of her trust.

8. Upon the death of my daughter, Gertrude, it is my will that this fund shall go to and be equally divided among such of her children as survive her. In the event she is not survived by children, the remainder of said trust to pass to my heirs-at-law.

I make this trust to you, Gertrude, after a great deal of deliberation. As my daughter I love you and your children, and it is for this reason that I have resolved to establish this trust in your favor, in order that you may be protected from want or need and to preserve for you that share of my estate to which you are rightfully entitled. I hope that you will understand, and, too, I trust that Ward will not consider this as any reflection upon himself, for none is intended. I wish you both much happiness.

It is my desire that the administration of my estate and/or trust shall be as free from technicalities and expense as possible, and I, therefore, direct and authorize my four children, or those living at the time any question arises regarding my intent and wishes as herein expressed, to resolve any ambiguity, real or fancied, in the provisions of this will relative to my estate and/or trust, and to authorize the Executors and/or Trustees to take or refrain from taking any action or making any payment, and the Executors and/or Trustees and all parties dealing with the Trustees and/or Executors may rely upon such written resolution of ambiguity or upon such written direction as fully and to the same extent as if same were contained in this will.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand at Tracy City, expended in such manner, and within the discretion of the Trustee, believing that he will do any and all things which he thinks is for the best interest and well-being of any child or children of my said son, James B. Tidman. I further direct if my said Trustee is handling any funds for any children of my son, James B. Tidman, that any child's part in the trust fund shall terminate when said child reaches the age of twenty-three years, and any balance in the hands of the Trustee shall at that time be paid to said child.

(d) In the event of my son's death not survived by children, or in the event all issue (child or children) of his shall die before said trust terminates, the remainder of the trust shall be paid and distributed to those who would inherit through me under the laws of the State of Tennessee had my death occurred at that time.

II

The Trustee hereunder of my son's trust shall manage, care for and protect the trust fund according to his best judgment and discretion, and shall have power to invest and reinvest in such securities (legals for trust investments or otherwise) as he may think proper, provided that such securities purchased for said trust shall be purchases with the written approval of my son, James B. Tidman, if living. In addition, I provide that if my said son, James B. Tidman, wishes the Trustee to purchase stock in the Company for which he is working, said stock may be purchased with the approval of the Trustee named hereunder, and in order that my said son, James B. Tidman, shall receive the benefits of owning said stock, I direct that my said Trustee shall handle the matter in such manner where the stock will be issued in the name of my son, James B. Tidman, but said stock shall be endorsed in blank by the said James B. Tidman, and held by the Trustee as part of the trust estate.

III

Neither the principal nor the income of this trust fund herein established shall be liable for the debts of any beneficiary hereunder, nor shall the same be subject to seizure by any creditor of any beneficiary under any writ or proceeding at law, and no beneficiary hereunder shall have any power to sell, assign, transfer, encumber or in any other manner to anticipate or dispose of his or her interest in the trust fund, or the income produced thereby.

IV

The Trustee shall not be required to qualify or to make reports or statements to any court, but he shall submit a complete report showing the condition of said trust fund at least once a year, and shall at all times keep such records which may be open for the inspection of the beneficiaries.

V

The Trustee shall have discretionary power to encroach upon the principal of the trust fund for the welfare of my son, James B. Tidman, if he, in his discretion, thinks it is for the best interest and well-being of my son to do so.

VI

In the event of the death of the Trustee named hereunder or his inability to handle the trusteeship due to some incapacity, I direct that this trust shall thereupon terminate and the proceeds or the remainder of said trust be paid to my son, James B. Tidman, or, in the event of his death, equally to his child or children, per stirpes.

VII

This codicil shall relate only to this trust herein established for my son, James B. Tidman, and in speaking of child, children or issue of my said son, it is not intended to include any children which may have been adopted by him.

VIII

I hereby adopt as a part of this trust the last paragraph contained in my will dated February 5, 1940, regarding my desire that the administration of my estate shall be free from technicalities, etc., and for this purpose I direct that said paragraph have all the effect that it would have if contained in this codicil.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand this 18th day of February, 1941.

Gertrude Tidman

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF GEORGE W. KILGORE.

I, George W. Kilgore, of Tracy City, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and realizing the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void any other Wills by me at any time made.

FIRST.

I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my demise as is practicable, out of any money of which I may die seized and possessed, or that may first come into the hands of my Executor.

SECOND.

It is my desire that after my death, My Executor is hereby authorized and empowered to sell any real estate which I may own at the time of my death, and apply the proceeds of the same as follows: That one seventh of said proceeds be paid to Ella Street, who has been a member of my family for many years; one seventh to William W. Kilgore; one seventh to Carl L. Kilgore; one seventh to Dillie Kilgore McDonald; one seventh to Ethel Kilgore, and two sevenths to Clarence E. Kilgore.

THIRD.

All household goods and kitchen furniture and utensils are to go to Ella Street.

FOURTH.

In the event of the death of any one or more of the aforesaid beneficiaries before I die, or before the distribution of the proceeds of my estate is made, the surviving heir or heirs of such deceased shall take that part of the estate that their parent would have taken should he or she been living at that time. In the event any one of the named beneficiaries should leave no surviving heir or heirs, then that part of the estate will be distributed, share and share alike among those surviving.

FIFTH.

Having full faith and confidence in the ability and integrity of my son, Clarence E. Kilgore, I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint him Executor of this my last Will and Testament, who shall enter upon the duties as such without having to make any bond as such.

VOLUNTARY AGREEMENT

This agreement made this 19th day of January 1953 between Anna Patton Thrasher (Mrs. Thos. R.) and John Evander Patton, Jr.

Understanding that we are the sole legal heirs to the estate of our father, John E. Patton, of Coalmont, Grundy County, Tennessee; as set forth in his will, which has been recorded in Will Book # 3 at page 92 at the Grundy County Court House at Altamont, Tennessee-----but feeling that said will should be amended so as to allow his widow to participate in the division of the estate, we agree as follows:

We agree that Lillian A. Patton, widow of John E. Patton, should share and share alike with us in the division of the estate.

Now, therefore, we declare that it is our wish that this agreement be considered to be and become a formal petition to the Executor of the estate from the present and original plan which directed that one-half of the estate go to each of us, to a new division, To wit: That the decision be made three ways..... One-third to Anna Patton Thrasher, One-third to John Evander Patton, Jr. and One-third to Lillian A. Patton.

Futhermore, we here and now authorize John Evander Patton, Jr., Executor of the Estate, to use this agreement as a request to the Court of Grundy County at Altamont to amend the will so as to provide for the above desired changes.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JAMES F. IVEY AND WIFE, DOLLIE IVEY

We, James F. Ivey and wife, Dollie Ivey, of Grundy County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and realizing the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void any other will or wills by either of us at any time made.

FIRST: We direct that all just debts and funeral expenses of each of us be paid as soon after our demise as is practicable, out of any money which we, or either of us may die seized and possessed, or out of the first money that may come into the hands of our Executor.

SECOND: In as much, as we have two sets of children, that is, James F. Ivey has four children, not of this marriage, and Mrs. Dollie Ivey has three children, not of this marriage, and no children by this marriage, we desire, that after our death, all the property, both real and personal that we may own at that time be sold by our Executor, who is hereby clothed with full power and authority to sell the same at public sale, and the proceeds be equally divided between our said children, share and share alike, that is, each child shall receive an equal amount of the proceeds of our estate. After the sale of said property, and before distribution, if we have any cash, notes, or other choses in action, the same shall be reduced to cash by the executor, and this, along with the proceeds of the sale of any real and personal property we may have, shall be divided in the same way among said children.

THIRD: In the event of the death of either of us, said estate of every kind shall go to the survivor, during their natural life, and said survivor may sell any and all of said property, for his or her support, and it is only the residue that is to be divided as herein above set out, and the probate of this will, after the death of either of us, shall be for the purpose of vesting title to the survivor to said estate, and after the death of both of us, the final probate shall vest in the Executor the right to dispose of said property, as herein provided.

FOURTH: Having full faith and confidence in the ability and integrity of Frank Scruggs, we hereby nominate, constitute and appoint him as Executor of this, our last will and testament, who, upon qualification as such, shall be clothed with all the authority of law and this will, to do and perform the duties devolving on him, and he is hereby excused from making any bond as such Executor, and shall, on final settlement of said estate, be paid from the proceeds of said estate, reasonable
