Isabel Watkins Last Will and Testament

In the name of God amen, I Isabel Watkins of Haverden County and State of Virginia, being my weak in body, but possessing a sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this as my last Will and Testament, in witness and form following, to wit: - It is my Will and desire, that all my just debts and funeral Expenses be first paid. Then - I give and bequeath to my four Grand Children to wit, John Napoleon, William Lafayette and Patrick St. Birdsong, that is to say, I give and bequeath to John, a certain Negro Girl, named Frances aged about sixteen months, also One Bay horse two years old, with a Black face, and gray tail, also one Cow and calf as one further than our furniture, also a twenty five Dollar Ladies, bodice, and Brides, - Then it is my Will and desire that the above named three Grand Children, John Napoleon, William Lafayette, and Patrick St. Birdsong, have and possess, all the balances of my property, and effects, both Real and personal, of what I may be seized or possessed, with the exception of a certain Negro Girl, and debt, which has been given by me, and conveyed by deed of gift unto my said Grandson, Napoleon, which gift is hereby confirmed; It is my Will, that in the division of my property, as aforesaid, that the said Negro Girl, and her increase, shall be assigned unto said Grandson Napoleon exclusively, also a certain Gray Colt, One year old, also my saddle and bridle, One bed and furniture, One Cow and calf, which shall be by partition, - Then - I hereby Will and bequeath all the balances of my property both real and personal, to the above named William Lafayette Birdsong, and Patrick Henry Birdsong with the exception of One hundred dollars worth of property, which I hereby will and bequeath to my daughter Jane Birdsong, To wit, Jane aged twenty four years old, Robert aged twenty years, Angeline aged about twenty five, Hannah aged about forty years, also two Slaves and thirty acres of land, on which I now live, with all the Improvements of, also all the balances of the stocks of Hops, cattle, sheep, also One Wagon and two Cows of Oxen, but it is my Will and desire, that the said Wagon and Oxen, and all belonging thereto, shall remain for the use of the family, I also hereby except out of the stocks of Horses, for the use of my beloved wife, a certain Silver Mare, Maria, as her own Right and property, and at her death the price of said Mare (or increase) to be Equally divided among the above named three Grand Children, I also give and bequeath, also all the farming utensils, of every kind, to be for the use of the above and at the disposal of my beloved wife, also Kitchen furniture, It is my Will and desire, that the following Horses be sold in the Autumn of 1836: To wit, a One Horse called Harry (white), and One Small filly 3 years old, called (Cous and Queen), a One two year old Colt, called (Bentley) to be sold for Cash, by my Executors, the stock of Hays, are to remain on the plantation, for the use of the family, the Annual pressing of the same, to be for the maintenance of the family and Education of the said Grand Children - Then it is the opinion of my Executors, be thought proper or necessary to Exchange the above named Negro man ~~Slave~~, they are authorized to do so, and to either by swapping, or otherwise, put another, Black complected Negro man in his room - As I have the Guardian of my above named four Grand Children, therefore it is my Will and desire, that whatever a certain Negro Boy named Blackburn, about five years old, and half five acres of land, belonging to the Estate of Mr. Birdsong be divided among the aforesaid four Grand Children, and their Mothers shares and share alike, but that in the mean time it is my wish that the half five acres of land, shall be sold to as the my expense of a suit now pending in the Circuit Court, in Bellwood for the recovery of a note given for three hundred and two dollars, and particularly for the payment of fifty dollars, to G. J. Jones Reads, provided he give the suit, but if not, he is to keep no fees, which is one barrel contract, which fees it is my wish should be paid up on the recovery of said suit, should there be no necessity for selling said land and Negro boy - the same to remain for the use of said four Children and their Mothers - Then it is my Will and desire that my daughter Jane Birdsong shall be maintained so long as she may remain in my family, but should she marry, or otherwise remove from my family, then and in that case, she is to have the above mentioned One hundred dollars worth of property out of my Estate, and no more - It is my Will, and desire, that my said property be and remain in the use, and possession for her support and enjoyment of my wife, during her life, or Widowhood, and under her control and management, and disposal of the annual produce and increase of the farms, and stocks, to the support, maintenance, and Education, of said Grand Children, of support & maintenance of our daughter as she may think proper and advisable, - I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint, my Wife Sally Watkins & my friend Mr. Miller, Miles, Executors and Executor of this my last Will and Testament.
