174 that he was a young man, and that he wished me to aid and assist him, I then agreed to give Mr. Peters any Assistance I could conveniently in winding up his Affairs. He again urged me to comply with his requests, intimating that he would not be satisfied unless I promised him, saying also that he wished not to give me priority, that he did not wish our friends involved & that he wished me well paid for my services, he added that he never wrote a Will, that he wanted none that he wished all his just debts paid, and the remainder of his Estate divided between his three children. Then appealing to me to say, whether I would promise, I agreed to do so, telling him I considered it my duty as a neighbor & friend, to all of which I am willing to be bound, this 20th of Sept. 1840.
