Additional Inventory
There is a claim for about five thousand dollars, for a part the money arising from the sale of lands left by Joseph Taylor, the price of two negroes sold to Willis C.
Summerville, and the hire of several negroes, against the estate of John Glasgow. owing to E. G. Glasgow & M. A. Glasgow. Also together estimated by me & Thomas Peter the executor of the estate of John Glasgow. as the said sum of five thousand dollars. I have taken from said Thomas Peter negroes belonging to the estate of John Glasgow. Valued at $5,000 in liquidation of said debt provided the title is good & I can hold them.
Part of the negroes taken for the above debt have been seized & sold by the Sheriff of Harrisman County, under an execution in favor of the Union Bank. A Bill has also been filed against me by the said Union Bank, to recover the balance to recover the balance of the negroes sold for said debt, which if occurred will

Caused the debt above named of $5,000 to be very doubtful. Thos Taylor Ex. Guardian
