Last Will and Testament of Henderson Fealy, dec.
In the Name of God, amen. I Henderson E. Fealy of the County of Hardin and State of Tennessee, being of and perfect mind and memory, through meek of body do make & publish, this my last will and testament

In the manner following, viz
In the first place I give and bequeath unto my wife Lucinda Fralry the sum of five dollars New. It is my desire that all and every article of personal may die possessed of, and also whatever may be coming to me from my Father's Estate, be given my son William Jackson Fralry after he may come to be twenty one years of age, and that my beloved Mother, Sarah Fralry take the said Child and raise him out of said Estate. After paying all my just debts, and furthermore, Whereas, as my Wife Lucinda is in a family, Alas, if the Child should live, it is my wish that it have an equal part with the said William Jackson Fralry. In testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 7th day of November 1838

George Laden's Will copied.

In the name of God, amen, I George Laden of Hardin County and State of Tennessee being very weak and feeble in body, but of sound mind and memory and calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men to die, do make this my last will and Testament. Principally & first of all, I recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God who first gave it, and my body to be buried in a decent Christian manner, at the discretion of my Executors. And as touching such worldly effects as it has pleased God to bless me with in this life. I give, devise and dispose of in the manner in following manner. 1st It is my will that my beloved wife Cady be constituted the sole executrix of this my last & Testament. To take, have & keep in possession all the property Real and personal, to pay all my just debts in that manner that she may find it to be most convenient, and after paying all my just debts to retain the balance in her possession raise the children that it has pleased Almighty God to bless us with, and as any of the said children shall marry or come to age of maturity, my said beloved wife being my true and lawful executrix whom I hereby appoint as guardian to all my children during their minority is vested with the power of giving to each one as they may marry or arrive at lawful age, such sums of money or property as she may think advisable, so far as she may be able to spare the same, and it is also my wish that if she possibly can, to raise money enough to pay the decential expenses I now live or any part thereof that she pay so much of the same as she conveniently can that it may serve as a home for her and my beloved children. it is further my wish & will that at the death of my Wife, or in case that she should marry again then and in either case, all the remaining property is to be sold and equally divided amongst the following heirs or legates. Elizabeth Anderson, wife of J. B. M.

Anderson. So. W. Laden, Salitha Ann Laden, Richard Laden, James Laden, George W. Laden, Jackson Laden, Alexander Laden, Henry Laden, and should my beloved wife be living at the time said division be made then and in that case she is to receive her lawful share, herby declaring this to be my last will and Testament and no other in all things whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 28th day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight, interlined before signing Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of us, who in his presence and in, George W. Laden the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as Witnesses.
