In the name of God amen, I Jeremiah Jones of the County of Hardin and State of Tennessee, being in a low state of health, but sound of mind and memory, do make and publish this as my last will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made.

First, I direct that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid, as soon after my death as possible. Out of any money I may die possessed of, or may come into the hands of my Executors.

Secondly, I give and bequeath my beloved wife Easter, all my property, both real and personal, during her natural life or widowhood, that she may be able to raise and school our children. It is further my will and wish that, she give each of my sons a Horse, Saddle and Bridle when they arrive at the age of twenty one years.

Thirdly, It is my will and desire that my daughter Elizabeth should take charge of my unfortunate daughter Malician after the death of my wife. during her life, for and in consideration of which charge I give and bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth my negro girl Dinah for the purpose of assisting her, to be and remain hers during her natural life, then to descend to her bodily heirs, provided never the less should my daughter Malician die before my wife, then and in that case said negro girl Dinah descend back into estate to be divided as herein after mentioned.

Fourthly, I will and direct that at the death of my wife Easter that all my personal property be divided equally among all my children share, and share alike.

Fifthly, It is my will and desire that my land be equally divided all my several sons, in addition to what I have bequeathed them above.

318
Seventhly, and lastly, I do hereby nominate and appoint my wife Easter my sole Executor.

In witness whereof I do to this my last will set my hand and affix my seal this first day of October A.D. 1846.
