The last will & testament of Francis B. Alexander dec'd. Test'd July 17th 1853

Requiescit June 14th July 1853

The will of Francis B. Alexander B. of Reynolds, in the County of Hawkins, State of Tennessee.

I give all my real and personal estate, and effects, whatever and where soever to the two children of E. J. Tucker, in equal share, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, absolutely: which two children, rather, born 2nd Sept. 1830 and Frank, born 12th September 1832, or thereafter, I have acknowledged as my own children knowing them to be my own flesh and blood and believing them to be entitled to my property. To Elizabeth J. (or her) the mother of said children, I grant and give out of the annual income of my said estate an annual allowance - enough to keep herself and the said children in comfort and decency, and to educate them throughly.

I choose said E. J. Tucker and Judge Andrews of Nashville for executor of this my last will, made while I am sound in body and mind and with out the influence or over the presence and aid of any person whatever, but solely under the belief in the uncertainty of life, and that I ought to provide for my own children and their mother.

I have made and written above in my own hand in Reynolds in this the 17th day of July 1853 this will, as above written.

F. B. Alexander

As to my living children are married and have become from me some distance, I deem it right to make the following disposal of what property I have, both real and personal. To my son Jacob C. Miller I give and devise a certain portion of my land - Beginning at the mouth of the Williams branch, thence up said branch to John M. Mays line with his line to the Roberts line and with same to the Holston River and thence down the same to the bluff at the upper end of the River bottom to the fence then along said fence up the bluff to a fence running partly parallel with the River and with the same to the corner of the fence known as the Chocoby fence, thence along the fence of said fence in a Southern direction passing the South West corner of said fence and continuing thence straight line through the woods to the line of the Charles tract of land (this begins includes the Charles fence of course) after reaching the Charles line or across with my outside line to the beginning including the Mays house and other buildings pertaining thereto, (2nd) I direct that the piece of land above the Williams branch, adjoining the Mays to Charles, house & other to sold and the proceeds thereof appropriated to rebuilding the grave yard walls and also placing suitable said stones at my daughter Rosis grave & my own grave and my personal representative is empowered to sell said parcel of land either a public or private sale to the best advantage and make a deed to the purchaser.

I direct & devise the remainder of my land to be divided equally between my children Raddy Henry C, Samuel L, and Laura, the same may be sold for partition in any way they think best or partitioned in kind if they so elect, all the land herebefore mentioned is South of Holston River, in the 18th Civil District of Hawkins County. To my daughter Laura, I bequeath the following personal property two feather beds - one Collage bed, Stove, and table, and chairs, the dining parlor the mirror and Cots, the mirror refers to is called dining, I befor self and set of chairs.

To my son Jacob C. I give & bequeath the Spring bay mare, the black cow, all the farming implements the set bay mare "Sunny", I leave all the farm in the care of said son and want him to be and that his price and be to be look about and not to use his much any way.

I give and bequeath to said Jacob to a good feather bed, Collage bed, Stove, two tables his comfort and the guitar that I claim, as my own, not otherwise disposed of. the State table, Stove & chairs, I give and bequeath to Jacob to said Laura, signing the change Clock and all my books, I give to Jacob to but he must pay his brother Henry C, a fair compensation in money for these articles, to wit: the Clock, Spring, Stove. I give to my daughter Betty the first cow, also the black Stile now in her possession, the Cow she has already.

I give to my son Samuel M. the Saw cow, He has already got her in possession, I direct that all my debts including funeral expenses to be paid out of my personal property as hands or my death not disposed of - if the same be sufficient, if not, the same coming from the sale of the land above mentioned, if such there be, is directed to be applied to the payment of any just debts I may die owing - including funeral expenses - widow pay and widow then should be of my estate not disposed of - after paying off just liabilities, I direct that the same be given to my son Jacob C. Miller.

I nominate and appoint Samuel M. Miller, as Executor of this Will, and as then will be his little to come into his hands, I designate that a Bond of one hundred dollars only be required of him.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my Signature and affixed my Seal February 6 1884, in the presence of the subscribing Witnesses especially called upon to attest the same, to wit:

W. H. Williams

J. C. Shuman

Rosanna C. Miller
