Copy of the last Will & Testament of Nancy Jones
Dec^d Original filed and proved 6th day of November 1871.

I, Nancy Jones, a Widow of Hawkins County Tenn, being in feeble health, and well advanced in years, and of sound and deepening mind and memory, do make and testify this to be my last will and testament, hereby re-voking all other heretofore by me at any time made - in presence - I desire that my funeral expenses, and all of my just debts be paid as soon as practicable after my death, out of any money or money that may be on hand when I die, or which may come into the hands of my Executors due course of collection of claims I have, or by the sale of such property as it may be necessary to sell for the purpose of paying up my estate. This I do both as to time and Manner, I leave entirely in the discretion of Executors to be named after my death and appointed.

Item 1st To my son Henry B. Jones, I give and devise that portion of my real estate which he now lives - beginning at a Spring in the gap of the Knob near Sparrowsburg and from said Spring a straight line to a corner of that portion of said land already conveyed as the Crook of a ditch, thence with line of said Crook to the State Corner in the Porters Valley road - thence west and up said Porters Valley road east of the mouth of a law which runs on the North side of the Valley to the woods the mouth of said law is nearly opposite of my present dwelling house, thence, thence is, from the mouth of said law with said law at Northwestern corner to W. W. Johnson's line on the Knob of Gravely Valley - thence with said Johnson's line and other boundaries to the beginning - Containing approx-imately about two hundred acres, including the same were already conveyed to the said Henry B. Jones,

Now I give and devise to my son Samuel H. Hines, Lucy Hines Hines my daughter and to Julia Frances Johnson, my grand daughter all of the rest and residue of my said real estate east of the line already mentioned as laying off Henry B's portion as the said Samuel H. the said Lucy H. are both somewhat advanced in life, and both unmarried and having no children, and being of feeble health, and the said Julia Frances Johnson, is a minor of tender years and an orphan, it is my desire that they holding in tenants in common, live in the mansion house during the term of their natural lives, of the said Samuel H. and Lucy H. making & being but one family. The mansion house is designed to carry with it all our home, Stables, barns & other buildings and this portion of land here bequeathed devised to the said Samuel H. Lucy H. and Julia Frances, If in the course of time the said Lucy H. should marry during the natural life of either the said Samuel H. and Lucy H. and they should be agreed with the said Julia Frances, & her husband in it, my desire that the said Julia Frances, shall have her portion viz: the one third part in value of said real estate laid off to her, as the twenty six of said tract of land including the house wherein I now reside, now live.

Now 4th I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sarah Elizabeth the sum of five hundred dollars to be paid out of any money or moneys that may be on hand at my death or which shall come out of the sale of any personal property which shall be necessary to be made by my executor.

Now 5th unto to my daughter Ann P. Rogers I give and bequeath and set apart the sum of five hundred dollars to be laid out at interest by my executor and at his discretion - only taking good and sufficient security - which interest shall be paid to the said Ann P. Rogers for from the day of her marriage. The said husband, or any future husband, should she ever marry again, and the said sum shall be kept as interest until the coming of said Ann P's children shall become twenty one years old, and then if the said Ann P. is dead then her children shall have and share alike, the said sum both principal and interest, I leave for my executor to pay over the five hundred dollars to said Sarah Elizabeth & to loan the five hundred dollars for the benefit of the said child, & her children, whenever in the due course of the trust he shall be able to do so, but he not to be liable for said sum by action at law under pain of perjury.

Now 6th I give and bequeath unto my said son Samuel H. to my said daughter Lucy H. and to my said grand daughter Julia Frances, all the rest and residue of my personal property which may remain on hand after my executor shall make or cause to be made any necessary sales or sales that of regard for the purpose herein after and hereinafter may be required.

Now 7th I have already made ample provision for my daughter Louisa A. Hinesman, who resides in Missouri, and for my daughter Julia Lewis in her life time - and it is not my desire or intention that they or their children shall have anything more of my estate, than they have already gotten.

Now 8th It is my desire that a regular Guardian be appointed for the said Grand daughter Julia Frances Johnson who shall see after and guard her interests and superintend her schooling - paying for the same out of her share of my personalty if that be sufficient for out of the principal and profits of the interest in the tract of land given to Samuel H. Lucy H. and the said Julia Frances.

9th Now It is my will, and desire that my son Samuel H. be and he is hereby appointed the executor of this my last will and Testament, and that the said Wm. Wallenau be not required to execute a larger bond than one for one thousand dollars, It is also my desire that the said Wallenau manage and attend to the said already in court or hereafter to be brought as Attorney regular with whatever Counsel he may deem it right and proper to employ in the premises.

10th Now It is my will and desire that they pay Wm. Wallenau be all such proper compensation for his services as executor of this my last will & Testament, in full payment whereof I have signed & affixed my seal in the presence of the subscribing witnesses - attested by us at the request of the Declarant in the presence this 14th August 1871
