Copy of the last will testament of James S. Shipp, was from this 2nd day of May 1874

I, James S. Shipp, of the County of Hawkins County, and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind; but growing feeble in thought; knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make this my last will and testament revoking and annulling all before.

Thus 1st In my son William S. Shipp, I bequeath or give a certain tract of land lying on the south side of Nolichucky river, in the upper end of Longs Bottom is being the same tract of land that was divided, by my father William Shipp beginning by a Sycamore on the river bank, near the upper end of the bottom, thence south 28 East 24 poles to white oak and then corner as pointers on the top of the bluffing a sink of the same, thence south 71 East 63 poles to a hickory in the knee of a long hollow, thence south 36 East 104 poles to a poor oak on the rocky top of the mountain with post oak, dogwood and hickory as pointers, thence down the south side of the mountain, with a long hollow south 36 East 10 poles to a stake, and then down stream to the
