The last will and testament of Mary Annestine de. B. and given 6th day of April 1868, which is in the words and figures following to wit:

I Mary Annestine of sound mind disposing of my estate in good health but considering the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, I do hereby publish the following to be my last will and testament, by this proving all other which I may have made.

I do give of first hereafter mentioned: that which under the last will of my husband William Annestine, signed & witnessed on the 16th day of February 1860, certain specific personal property to me, as my sole & entire disposal, to wit: Two negroes, a cow, a horse, a sheep, a pig, and all the stock, hogs, sheep, & other cattle, also the farming implements & the home-hold & kitchen furniture of every kind & species, and the said William Annestine, mentioning the same of things given and paid or to be paid to his children, Mary Annestine, Mary Annestine and other property personal things and disposing of his lands in accordance with his wish and giving a part thereof to his son Alfred another part during my natural life to me Mary Annestine - then to William Annestine, & expressing in his said last will that it was his wish for William Annestine to his with me to manage the farm, to wit: the above mentioned lands, to wit: to me first & remainder to him the said William Annestine, also to provide my house in the said tract of land. At the said the said William Annestine receiving one half of all made thereon after paying necessary expenses under the liquidation & paid off the same of the said said first hundred dollars, paid & to be on the said or parcel of land going to him at my death, to the Executor of the estate of said William Annestine, my husband & the testator, in the above mentioned will the same, by him made signed, to wit: on the 16th day of February 1860, and whereas great & marked changes have taken place since the publication of said last will & testament, and since the death of said testator William Annestine, I have given great loan sustained in many other kinds of property, hogs, sheep, &c.

And knowing that nothing can be done or bestowed for the family & family incidental or necessary expenses was realized off the said tract of parcel of land, given to me during my natural life, then to Wm. Annestine, during the late civil war.

Therefore I Mary Annestine feel it my duty & have executed on said pursuant to said last will of my husband Annestine, to wit: It is my will & desire that Mary Annestine have the sum of one dollar, to be paid out of the effects of my estate, but having already having been amply provided for by his father or should not be
