

Bloomer shall become absolute according to the terms of this testament. My daughters Lucy Lou and Nancy are to reside in the house hereby bequeathed to them during the lifetime of my wife and to be equal beneficiaries in the production of the said land hereby bequeathed during said term of life aforesaid; and my son Thomas Bloomer is to reside on the said land bequeathed to him during the natural life of my wife to manage and farm the same during the term of said life when the bequest herein will become absolute.

I hereby nominate and appoint my son Thomas Bloomer to be the Administrator to this my last Will and Testament and to see that the provisions therein contained are carried out and to that end having implicit confidence in his honesty and integrity he is not to be required to give bond and security as such Administrator. And I hereby declare and establish the foregoing to be my last will and Testament. And in Witness whereof I hereby annex my hand and affix my seal this 8th day of June 1878.

Witness
Christian Bloomer.
