 cordial to my said wife, as my son William does not wish to act as one of my executors, on account of inconvenience, I have directed his said name not to have also signified her last and apostrophe of the 2^d line in a Mortgage bond, under the line on 2^d page. If George wishes to retain the said mortgage in Texas, he can do so, by acceding for all the checks he got of me, with interest & premium on checks paid by me, and a little can be made to him by his Co. Administrators
 - Austin & Squires by me the 15 March 1875.

2^d Cordial

In the cordial to my wife dated 15 March 1875 inasmuch as my son George has taken up his residence in Texas & cannot discharge duties as one of my representatives, I hereby appoint my son W. M. Alexander Esq.
 - gentl and trustee of my said estate, and make him 2^d Cordial, and as my son George under peculiar circumstances got from me for checks for five hundred dollars, the sale of which with 3 or four telegrams and commissions & about two dollars, I hereby allow my said wife, & that said estate shall receive no more of my estate. The check was given about the middle of last March. Witness my hand & seal. Tenth day July 1875.
