The last will & testament of Cornelius to Groves deceased.

In the name of God Amen. I Cornelius Groves of the County of Washington and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but somewhat feeble in body, do make and publish this my last will and testament, 1st It is my wish and desire, that the expenses attending my death and burial shall be paid out of any money or property that I may have at the time of my death.

2^d I give and bequeath unto my Grand son, Andrew Groves all my lands in Stanley Valley on the waters of Big Creek, consisting of the home tract, containing one hundred and fifty six acres, also an entry of twenty acres joining the home of Christian Summay and others. Also meaning the home and stock in, for a homestead for my wife Sarah Groves, which she is to remain sole proprietor of during her natural life also a comfortable support from the farm, together with the stock for the use of the place, and on condition that the said Andrew Groves dies before he arrives to the age of twenty one, the aforesaid lands is to descend back to the heirs of said Cornelius to Groves.

3^d I will and bequeath to my daughter Betty ^[Linus] ~~Shanks~~ and her heirs that portion of my Stanley Valley farm, wherever she now lives and borders, as follows. Beginning on an ash on John Williams line, then running with top of the ridge as said John Williams line, comprising the land north of said line.

4th I give and bequeath to my daughter Matilda Shanks and her heirs the other portion of said farm, and bounded by said line as the top of the ridge, made and established by said Cornelius Groves. Between the said Betty Shanks and Matilda Shanks, consisting of the land on the south side of said line.

5th To my son Lewis Groves, I give and bequeath out of my estate one dollar, also to my son James Groves and others.
To my Grand son Thomas Groves son of Henry Groves I bequeath five dollars, in the balance of Henry Groves children, Sarah, Uriah, John and Matilda one dollar a piece

6th It is my wish and desire, that my son John Groves shall have the mill and all the appurtenances, in accordance with the understanding, that he the said John Groves
