Will of Eleanor M Smith

Filed and proven July 1919 L. R. Barber, Clk.

I want my household & belongings to be shared equally with my girls. I would like Eleanor Smith to have $1000.00. Eleanor to have $1000.00. The late Brown Stock fund the thousand dollars big bond taken killed him. I am so feeble I cannot divide the things out for I know my girls are so noble they will deal square with each other. I tell God but miss for his last goodness to Margaret Alvis has been good to me.

I want back to have a thousand dollars if there is any & if there is any great amount left I would like Fred's Chapel to have $100.00. Oh; Frank how could you do what you have done & live? for you know you had not one penny nor one head of stock for the Broad by place.

Frank Smith has not treated me right & he knows I told him that he & Colver had ruined me & ruin me crazy. I want my lot of the place sold & divided between the four girls for to even up the many things I have done for Frank. Colver goes back to him & if Frank is sold fast more than his debt it goes to him.

I want every thing done right. This is my will & wish signed by Eleanor M Smith & witnessed by God & the angels Oct 26-1917

Will of J. S. Hawthorn

Filed and proven July 25, 1919, L. R. Barber, Clk. I, J. S. Hawthorn of Surgoonville, Tennessee, mind and realizing the uncertainty of life, make this my last will and testament.

I give, devise and bequeath my estate and property, real and personal, as follows, that is to say:
Article I
To my wife, Bessie L. Hawthorn one-tenth (10) or a child's part of all property, both real and personal, and she shall have and retain possession of the homestead, so long as she may live, and at her death, the said property is to revert to my heirs and be divided equally.

Article 2
The remainder to be divided equally among my nine children, to wit: Mrs. Anna M. Hawley, Thos. J. Hawthorn, Mrs. Mary C. Brunson, Mrs. Emma C. Custer, Mrs. Mary Alice Miller, Mrs. Bessie Custer, James M. Hawthorn, Mrs. Bessie B. Custer, and J. C. Hawthorn.

Will of Marvill Derrick

Filled and proved July 28, 1919, L. R. Baker, clk.
I Marvill Derrick being of sound mind and disposing memory do make & publish this my last will and testament.

First- After my death I want all my just debts of any kind paid out of the personal asset belonging to my estate.
Second- I have this day deeded & conveyed to my sons Enoch L. Derrick, L. DuWolf Derrick and John C. Derrick certain tracts of land which I desire them to have. I have charged L. DuWolf's share with the payment of one thousand dollars in favor of my daughter Robbie Darter, which sum I wish her to have and I have charged the share conveyed to John C. Derrick with the sum of six hundred and the share conveyed to Enoch L. Derrick with the sum of four hundred dollars in favor of my daughter Margaret Waterson which two sums I desire her to have, and these several sums of money I want paid as soon as possible after my death, & they are to draw interest from the date of my death with paid.

Third- I hold a note on my daughter Bettie M. Carrett for the sum of six hundred dollars with a credit of one hundred dollars. She owes ~~me~~ ^{me} three hundred & fifty dollars on a piece or parcel of land. I have recently conveyed to her in order to enable her to adorn herself with my other two daughters. I hereby release & forgive her the payment of said two debts & said note as to be surrendered to her. I have no note for the amount she owes me on the land.

Fourth- If at my death if any of my children should be indebted to me by note, account or otherwise (except the said Bettie M. Carrett as above mentioned) I want my Executor to collect such debt or debts as any of them may owe me & pass the proceeds of such debts to my general estate.

Fifth- I wish all my personal estate & all the remainder of my estate of whatever nature, divided equally among all my children.

Sixth- I hereby nominate and appoint my son L. DuWolf Derrick Executor of my estate - of this will.

Seventh- I hereby revoke all former wills made by me.

Given under my hand this the 25th day of November, 1907.

Codicil to Will of Marvill Derrick Whereas: on the 25th day of November 1907, I the undersigned M. Derrick made my last will, I now therefore do make the codicil to said will and as a part thereof, and to the following effect. Vis. I have since making of said will, deeded to my son Enoch L. Derrick certain land as his share of my estate, therefore the devise of land to him in said will be hereby withdrawn, and the said Enoch L. Derrick is hereby discharged from paying the four hundred dollars to my daughter Margaret Waterson, that was directed in said will for him to pay.

I also devised in my said will that my personal estate be equally divided among my six children, I now hereby withdraw that bequest by this codicil, and it is my desire and is so directed, that all my just debts be paid out of my personal estate and the remainder of my personal estate including money or notes be equally divided among my three daughters, Bettie Carrett, Robbie Darter and Margaret Waterson.

The foregoing codicil was acknowledged by the testator M. Derrick and signed by him in our presence and we at his request attested the same as witnesses. This the 2 day of January 1915.

Will of Anna M. Brown

Filed and proven June 10th, 1920, L. B. Baker, Clk.
 I, Anna Mariah Brown, of the County of Hawkins State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this life do therefore make public and declare this to be my last will and testament, that is to say first after my lawful debts and funeral expenses are paid and discharged, I give and bequeath unto my husband James A. Brown a life time abhorment of all the lands of which I am now possessor of. He is to have all of my personal property, he is to have possession of a dwelling house garden and orchard also control of the outbuildings during his natural life, also for the love and affection I have for my children I give and bequeath unto my daughter Corina M. Hamilton and my son George Newton Brown one tract of land lying in the 6 Civil District of Hawkins County, State of Tennessee, bounded in the East by Anderson Ford North by Burrell and Chatham on the West by Wolf on the South by Wolf this tract of land to be divided by a line beginning on the East corner of said land for the south thence a straight line to a large persimmon tree immediately on the North side of Bottom Valley road thence West with said road to a point on a line with a wire fence running North from said road thence with said wire fence to where it intersects with a wire fence running to the Henderson Farm thence a straight line to the head of a spring on the North side of a creek known as the Bradshaw Fork thence with the center of a ravine running from said spring to the the Chatham line, I give to my daughter Corina M. Hamilton all of the above described tract of land lying East of this division line and shall be known as lot No. 1 and at her death (this shall be Cora M. Hamilton entire share on my estate personal and real) death to descend to her body here I give and bequeath to my son George Newton Brown all of the above described tract of land lying West of this division line to be known as lot No. 2 and at his death to descend to his body here also my son George Newton Brown and the heirs shall have a right of way of twenty feet across lot No. 1 along the Wolf line on the South to the spring branch for the purpose of watering stock, also my son George Newton Brown and heirs shall have a right of way to and right to use the the water from a large spring known as the Cow Springs on lot No. 1 and furthermore I give my daughter Corina M. Hamilton in lot No. 1 the amount of five hundred dollars in value more than it cost, this amt. was in a dwelling house and barn and other buildings, also I give my daughter Corina M. Hamilton the rent for eighteen years on a piece of land of fifty acres that I owned, said land formerly belonged to William Brown die during the eighteen years I did not receive any rent whatever and I consider the rent was worth twenty five dollars per year, these advantages I give my daughter Corina M. Hamilton to fully compensate her with her husband E. B. Hamilton for any and all improvements they made on said fifty acres of land during the eighteen years, furthermore I declare if after my death either one of the beneficiaries of this will shall through the courts of the State try to null or set aside this will by so doing they shall forfeit their right to the land willed to them and their portion shall go to the heirs that acquiesce to this will, in witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this the 14 day of May in the year of

Will of Joseph Brewer

Filed and proven October 7th 1920. L. R. Baker, Clk

I, Joseph Brewer of Rogersville, Tennessee, do hereby make and publish this, my last will and testament, having never made a previous will; to wit:

I give, devise and bequeath to my son Charles M. Brewer, all my property, of what soever character and kind, and whatsoever situate.

In consideration of the gift to my said son of all my property I declare and require of him that he allow my wife, his mother, a home in the mansion house on my home farm near Rogersville and that he contribute support and maintain her so long as she shall live; and that he furnish her decent burial at her death.

Should my wife contract a second marriage after my death such fact shall discharge my said son from any further obligations hereunder with reference to furnishing her a home or supporting her, etc.; so long as she remains the legal wife of such second husband; but the termination of her marital relations with such second husband either by death or otherwise shall restore her to her rights of support, etc. hereunder, and shall again impose upon the said Charles M. Brewer the duties and obligations herein laid upon him with respect thereto.

And as a further consideration of the bequest and devise to my said son of all my property, I require him to pay to my daughter, Kate Newberry (his sister) the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, and to Annie Sennebourg (his sister) the sum of Four Hundred Dollars, such sums so required to be paid to them and become a charge upon the real estate which the said Charles M. may take hereunder.

In the event either of my said daughters should die before I do without children surviving them (neither having children at this time) then the bequest to such daughter so dying shall lapse and not be payable. Should either die leaving children then the children shall take the amount which the parent would otherwise have taken if living, provided such child or children survive me. If they do not then such bequest shall lapse and not be or become payable.

My wife has agreed to the provisions of this will as being suitable and satisfactory to her; but should she, after my death, disavow from it, and should her disavow be held legal and effective, then I direct that the sums required to be paid to Kate and Annie be postponed until the death of my said wife, and the falling in of her rights as my widow, at which time the same shall be, and become payable.

I nominate and appoint my son Charles M. Brewer, the Executor of this will; but he is exempt from executing bond as such, and from filing monuments and rendering to the Court accounts of my estate, as is ordinarily required by law of executor.

I, J. C. Jones, of Hawkins County, Tennessee do hereby make and publish this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore by me executed. To-wit:

- (1) As soon after my death as possible I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my Executor from the proceeds of my personal estate.
- (2) And, After the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses I bequeath to my wife, Alice Jones, all the remainder of my personal estate for and during the term of her natural life, with the right in her to consume in the use and such part of the said personal estate as she may find necessary for her support and maintenance, and she is to be the Judge of the necessity existing for such consumption, in other words, I desire that my wife have the right to manage, dispose of, consume, and use the said personal estate during her life in such manner as she may wish without the right of any one to restrict her in such use, or supervise her use thereof.
- (3) And at the death of my wife I wish that all personal estate remaining on hand, whether the identical property which passed from me to my wife hereunder or not - for my wife has no separate personal estate - go to my several grand children, now
