Will of J. C. Jones
Filed and proven December 6th 1920 L.R. Baker clk

I, J. C. Jones, of Hawkins County, Tennessee do hereby make and publish this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore by me executed. To-wit:

- (1) As soon after my death as possible I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my Executor from the proceeds of my personal estate.
- (2) And, After the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses I bequeath to my wife, Alice Jones, all the remainder of my personal estate for and during the term of her natural life, with the right in her to consume in the use and such part of the said personal estate as she may find necessary for her support and maintenance, and she is to be the Judge of the necessity existing for such consumption, in other words, I desire that my wife have the right to manage, dispose of, consume, and use the said personal estate during her life in such manner as she may wish without the right of any one to restrict her in such use, or supervise her use thereof.
- (3) And at the death of my wife I wish that all personal estate remaining on hand, whether the identical property which passed from me to my wife hereunder or not - for my wife has no separate personal estate - go to my several grand children, now or hereafter born to the date of the death of my wife, such children to take per capita and not per stirpes.

(4) I also devise to my wife to have and to hold for and during the term of her natural life, all my real estate wherever sit- uated which includes the home place - the only land owned by me at this time - lying in the first civil district of Hawkins County, Tenn., adjacent on the north by the Holston River, south by Dorles, east by Coward and Cope, and west by Dorles, containing 8 1/2 acres, more or less.

(5) The remainder estate in the said tract of land I devise as follows:

(A) To my daughter, Brandy Jones, wife of John Jones I devise to parcels owned from the said tract of land, namely: lot number 1 known as the house or home plot, bounded as follows; beginning on an elm on the bank of the river and corner to the mill lot, then with a line of the same south 20° 20' West 20 and 1/2 poles to a post in a wire fence where a walnut formerly stood, then north 76° 1 pole to the center of the branch, then up the branch S 21° West 16 and 1/2 poles to a sycamore on the bank of the branch, then with the branch S 47° N 11 and 3/4 poles to a stake in the branch (planted stone) then south 53° E 8 poles to a stake in the road (planted stone) then with the road N 76° E 21 and 1/2 poles to a planted stone near the house, then S 21° and 1/2 E 3 poles to a planted stone in the orchard, then N 72° E 7 poles to a planted stone in the field, then N 11 and 1/2° N 2 and 1/2 poles to a planted stone in the road, then N 77° and 1/4 E 8 poles to a stake in the road, then due east 11 and 1/2 poles to a planted stone south east of the barn, then N 12° and 1/2° N 41 poles to a sycamore on the bank of the river, then south the bank of the river S 78° and 1/4° N 21 and 1/2 poles to the beginning, containing 9 and 1/2 acres. Also at a post of lot 1 a boundary of timber land by my south of the ferry road beginning on a white oak, Cowards, Dorles and John Jones corner, then N 5° E 10 and 1/2 poles to a stake

(planted stone) in the road near the mill, foot, then with the road N 85° and 1/2° N 42 and 1/2 poles to a stake in the road, then due south 27 poles to a planted stone in the boundary line, then with the road N 71° E 42 and 1/2 poles to the beginning, containing 5 acres.

(B) To my daughter, Sue Jones Cook, I devise the following boundary designated as lot no 2 cornered from said tract of land; adjoining lot number 1 and beginning on a white oak west of a small spring near Dorles spring branch, then S 32° E 18 1/4 poles crossing said spring branch to a dead locust with pointer, then N 72° E 25 and 1/2 poles to a planted stone corner to woodland lot of number 1, then with a line of same due north 27 poles to a planted stone in the road, then with the road N 85° and 1/2° N 13 and 1/4 poles to a stake (planted stone) corner to lot number 3, thence with a line of same N 3° and 1/2° E 122 poles to a leaning willow on the bank of the river, passing between two sycamores on the high bank, then down the bank of the river as it meanders 37 poles to a sycamore on the bank of the river, corner to lot number 1, then with various calls of lot number 1 as follows: S 12° and 1/2° E 44 poles to a planted rock south east of barn, then due N 11 and 1/2 poles to a planted stone in the road, then S 77° and 1/4° N 8 poles to a planted stone in the road, then S 11° and 1/2° E 2 and 1/2 poles to a planted stone in the field, then S 72° N 7 poles to a planted stone in the orchard, then N 21° and 1/2° N 3 poles to a planted stone in the road, then with the road S 76° N 21 and 1/2 poles to a planted stone in the road, then N 53° N 8 poles to a stake in the branch (planted stone) then about 15 or 20 feet to the beginning, containing 30 acres, more or less.

(C) To my daughter, Lemmie Jones Cope, I devise the following boundary cornered from the said tract of land, to wit: Lot number 3 beginning on a double sourwood corner to lot of land I have heretofore conveyed my son C. C. Jones, then S 5° N 42 poles to a planted stone in the bend of the road near the mill foot, and corner to woodland lot of number 1, then with the road N 85° and 1/2° N 55 and 1/2 poles to a stake in the road (planted stone), then with a line of number 2 N 3° and 1/2° E 122 poles to a leaning willow on the bank of the river and corner to number 2, then up the book of the river 31 and 1/2 poles to an Elm Grove to the land heretofore conveyed C. C. Jones, then with a line of said land S 3 and 1/2 dr 112 poles to a glaucous rock with sourwood, Dogwood and black oak joiners, Thence N 82 E 27 poles to the beginning, containing 35 acres.

The devise of said lot number 3 to Lennie Cope is for and during the term of her natural life with remainder to her children or descendants of children, should she have children born to her, should she die without children or descendants of children living at her death, then the said lot number 3 shall go to, and the title thereto vest in, my daughters, Maude Jones, and Sue Jones first jointly, or their children or descendants of children should either die before the death of the said Lennie Cope; the said Maude Jones to have all that part of said boundary of land lying to the south of a line commencing on a cypress tree in the lane and running easterly with the lane; the said Susan to have all that part of the said boundary lying to the north of the said line.

(6) I have heretofore made suitable provisions for my son C. C. Jones, out of my estate, therefore, no provision is made for him herein.

(7) I nominate and appoint my son C. C. Jones as executor of this will and direct that he be permitted to serve as such without bond.

Will of Margaret S. Huffmaster

Filed and proven June 4th, 1921 L.R. Baker, Clerk
I, Margaret S. Huffmaster, of Rogersville Hawkins County, Tennessee do hereby make and publish this as my last will and testament, as follows, to wit:

- 1 I direct that all my just debts including my funeral expenses be first paid.
- 2 I devise, bequeath and give to my nephew A.D. Huffmaster, in trust and as my trustee and executor my lot of land lying on the south side of main street, where I now reside, lying in said town of Rogersville, known as the old Joseph Huffmaster place, together with any and all other property whether real or personal of which I may die seized and possessed, for the use and purposes hereinafter specified. My said trustee and executor is relieved from giving bonds as such, neither is he required to make reports and settlements as required by law. As I leave everything to him under the broadest discretion to be by him exercised without let or hindrance from any source in the conduct of my estate as he may choose. He shall have the power and right to sell and dispose of my said real and personal estate in such way and manner as his judgment dictates or as he may deem. He may encumber the same by mortgage or otherwise for the payment of money, should he choose to borrow, or otherwise encumber it. He may sell and reinvest such proceeds, as often as he deems or he may dispose of such proceeds as he may think best. And this he may do as often as he desires from time to time as long as he may have such estate in hand whether it be the original estate the proceeds of such or any profits arising therefrom.

While it is my intention that the estate herein given may be applied as my said trustee and executor may please, yet no contingency shall it be taken up any legal, writ, or proceeding for the personal liabilities of the said A.D. Huffmaster, whatsoever.

- 3 As regards the foregoing it is my desire and I so direct that said estate so given shall be used and controlled by the said A.D. Huffmaster as such trustee and executor as he may deem best for the support of himself, his wife Laura S. Huffmaster, and his adopted daughter, Annie M. Huffmaster, exercising his own discretion as regards such support but this provision is not intended to interfere in any way or manner with the provisions contained in the foregoing paragraph or section two of this will.

And this provision for support of said Huffmaster,
wife and child, shall not in any manner interfere with the power of disposition or encumbrance hereinafter allowed said trustee and executor as to my said estate.

4 I should I allow the said, Ad. Huffmaster, then in that event, his said wife, Laura L. Huffmaster, shall be the trustee and executor of this will with the same rights, powers, privileges, directions, discretion, and immunities from bond, reports and settlements as is conferred herein upon the said Ad. Huffmaster, for the benefit of herself and said child Annie May Huffmaster. It is not intended herein to vest any absolute interest in said estate in the said Annie May Huffmaster otherwise than as may be deemed proper by the trustee and executor of this will; and such trustee and executor may finally dispose of said estate as he or she, managing about the said Ad. Huffmaster and Laura L. Huffmaster may desire in the exercise of the sole discretion of either which may be acting under this will in such capacity.

5 In order to execute my intent of will I have executed the same in duplicate either of which, or both may be proved, they being exactly alike with the same interlineations and erasures therein which were made before execution of the same by me.

Given under my hand this the 29th day of February, A.D. 1908.

Margaret S. Huffmaster.
The foregoing in her writing was acknowledged to be her last will and testament, she signed and so acknowledged the same in our presence and we at her request sign as witness thereto. This February 29th A.D. 1908.

Will of J. De Wolfe Miller.
Filed And Proven Dec 3rd 1921 L. R. Baker Clerk.

I, De Wolfe Miller of Benton County Tennessee do hereby make And publish this my last will And testament hereby revoking a previous will to wit,

Item 1 I bequeath and devise to my beloved wife, Mary Armstrong Miller, that portion of my home farm about eight miles east of Rogersville, on the main stage road, lying on and North of said stage road And included within the following boundaries to wit Beginning in the middle of the Creek in the old stage road thence with the old stage road in a Western course to the boundary gate on the North side of said road, about 150 yards west of the persimmon tree, thence a straight line about North 45° West to the Grayland; thence with the Gray line a Northwesterly course to a large Spring on Sinking Creek, My and the Gray comes thence with the meanderings of the creek to the beginning And also that portion of my said home farm lying South of said stage road And included within the following boundaries, to wit: Commencing at the mouth of Conel south of the residence and running thence Northwesterly following the line of way leading from the mouth of the Conel to the main stage road, (the old whigged road); thence easterly with the said road to the creek; And thence down the Creek to the mouth of the Conel, the beginning point including my residence. The said boundaries of land so devised to the said Mary Armstrong Miller are supposed to contain about 250 Acres.

This devise of said land to my said wife is for and during the term of her natural life, or widowhood, and on her death or remarriage the said land will go to and vest in my son Wiley B. Miller in fee. I also bequeath to my said wife all household and kitchen furniture on hand at my death. I also bequeath to my said wife, to be paid to her by my executors, out of my personal estate Or the proceeds thereof the sum of five thousand ($5000.00) Dollars.

Item 2 I bequeath and devise to my said son Wiley B. Miller all that part of my said home farm Not hereinbefore devised to my wife Mary Armstrong Miller. I also devise to my said son Wiley B. Miller the island in the Holston or Tennessee River now owned by me situated just west of and below the bridge across said river of the Virginia & Southern Railway Co. And containing 41 Acres. I also devise I also devise to my sons Wiley B. Miller and De Wolfe Miller an undivided one half interest each in that certain tract of land owned by me containing 115 Acres And lying on the West side of the headwaters of Sinking Creek, adjacent on the North by Moore, on the West by the old Mill land, on the South by the old William Grayland, And on the East by Sinking Creek.

I bequeath to my said son Wiley B. Miller all formerly my horses And all live stock which I may own at my death.

Item 3 - I bequeath and devise to my son Sam P. Miller

My tract of land on the south side of Holston River made up of two boundaries, one of which I bought from W. S. Phipps and the other of which I bought from one Jones, who had bought from W. S. Phipps. The said tract of land now constituting one boundary, contains between three and four hundred acres.

Item - 4 After the payment of my just debts and the legacies herein given in items 1 and 2 all the rest of my residuum of my personal estate I bequeath to my sons Sam P. Miller, Willey B. Miller and DeWolf Miller, to be equally divided between them.

Item 5 I Nominate and appoint my said sons Sam P. Miller, DeWolf Miller and Willey B. Miller, the executors of this Will. And I direct that they be allowed to serve without Bond. They are excused from rendering an inventory of the estate, as is ordinarily required by law of executors and Administrators. And they are also excused from making and filing with any court a settlement thereof, as is ordinarily required of executors and Administrators, but they will at all times keep for the inspection of the legatus and devisees interested a statement of the condition of their accounts as such executors. It is my wish that the said executors serve as such without compensation.

Item 6 - Should any of the devisees or legatus provided for herein bring any proceeding in any court for the purpose of contesting the provisions of this will, such devisee or legatus shall thereby forfeit all the interest or estate which he or she takes hereunder, and the estate herein given such legatus or devisee shall thereupon pass to the other legatus and devisees herein named in equal interests. All the lands devised in this will lie in Hawkins County Tennessee and near the Village of Simpsonville in said County.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name on the 29th Day of October 1920.
