In the name of God amen

I Hiram Parks of the County of Maywood and State of Tennessee being in good health and sound mind make this my last Will and Testament
In the name of God amen. I Will to my beloved wife Lucy Parks all of my property during
of her life. All but one dollar to Robert Parks and one dollar to Nathan Parks, and one dollar
to Asa, & one dollar to Christopher Parks.

And then at the death of my beloved wife
then all my property to be equally divided between my two daughters, Sarah Parks & Mary Parks. If Sarah or Mary should marry during of my wifes life time, and she has come to give them of part of said property, my wife is for her to keep the value of said property until her death, so there can be an equal division made between them Sarah Parks & Mary Parks. I make this my last will and testament in the name of God amen. Signed sealed in the presence of

 Know all men by these presents that I Jane Deborah Johnson of the County of Haywood and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, hereby declare & constitute this to be my last will and testament.

1st That my negro woman be valued and that my son
 Henry Johnson take her at her said value, and pay out of his value, all debts due and to be paid by me or out of my property, and the remaining part of her said value, I wish to be disposed of in the following manner, one half to be paid over to John Chilton, for the benefit of my grand daughter Mary Deborah Johnson, and the other half to be retained in hands of my son Henry Johnson for the benefit of my grandson Thomas Johnson.

2nd I give and bequeath to my son Henry Johnson for himself, my Negro boy Closter, ~~the~~ the child of Eliza above mentioned.

3rd I give and bequeath to my three grand children
 John, Harriet and Jane Haywood, my Negro woman
 Rose, and I hereby request my son-in-law & daughter not to separate Rose from her children. If it should become necessary or advisable for them to remove, so that Rose would become separated from her children, it is my will and desire that they should sell her and let her remain with her children, and let her value be laid out and expended for the benefit of my three grand children above mentioned. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 4th day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty six

Witness
 John Chilton

Jane D Johnson Seal

In the name of God Amen, I Edward J. Cotter, of the County of Haywood and State of Tennessee being very sick and weak in body, but of sound mind and disposing memory, and calling to mind the uncertainty of life and certainty of death and being mindful of the immortality of the soul, do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following viz-

In the first place I commend my soul to God who gave it, and my Body to the dust from whence it came.

2^d. It is my desire that all my just debts be paid.

3^d. I give and bequeath unto my wife Mary Cotter all the property of which she was possessed at the time of our marriage to manage for herself and children for their own use and benefit.

4th. I give and bequeath unto my three children viz Jane, Amanda & William Cotter, all the residue of my property, And I do hereby entrust it to the care of Henry W. Means for the entire use and benefit of the above named Jane, Amanda and William Cotter constituting him the said H. W. Means their guardian and for them to act as to him may seem best and further Constituting him sole Executors.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & thirty six signed sealed and delivered

Thomas E. Gray
William Clark
Administrators.

In the name of God Amen. I Charles P. Palacios of the County of Maryland and State of Tennessee being in such a state of health as to render it doubtful that a dissolution of this mortal part will take place in a very short time do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others in manner and form following, to wit,

In the first it is my wish that the growing crop now on hand shall be finished and the Cotton Crop, and such other perishable as I may possess at my death, not including the present growing crop of Corn & fodder which is to be reserved for the use and support of my wife and her family to consist of herself and son Garland & Robert if she should so choose, and probably my daughter Susan, and not herein specifically—devised to be sold in such manner and on such terms as my executors not to be named may think proper and from the proceeds of said sale all my just debts paid, and the balance, if any, to be laid out in improvements for my wife and son Garland accommodation on a tract of land which I wish shall be purchased for him my son Garland—

In the second place it is my wish, will and desire, and hereby will and bequeath to my wife the four following negroes, to wit, Hannah, Mary, Ruth and George the younger, my riding horse and three other horses namely, one a gray named Charles, a bay horse named Roebuck and one filly no years old, the Carriage or Wuggy & harness, the entire growing crop of Corn & fodder, and all my stock of every description, One Yoke of Oxen & Wagon, two cow and set of gear two pole ax and six hoes—

It is my will that my wife and family of the mentioned already named shall remain in the possession of the premises now occupy and reside upon until the January in the year of our Lord 1839, in order that my son Garland may go to school at least two seasons, and in order too that in the mean time provision may be made for his and mother's accommodations thereafter as it is my most anxious wish that they shall live and remain together during their joint lives. The property so devised to her to be for and during her natural life and then to go as herein after devised. In the third place I will & bequeath to my son John Edwin my Negro woman Rainey, and the sum of eleven hundred dollars in money from the proceeds of the sale of my lands in Virginia to him and his heirs forever—

Having heretofore given to my daughter Julia five negroes and a lot in Brownsville, with other things not necessary here to name I shall devise nothing to her—

I will and hereby give and bequeath unto my son Charles P. the tract of land on which I at present reside containing fifty five acres with all its appurtenances &c. my negro man George and after the death of my wife, my negro woman Mary to him and his heirs forever—

I further will and bequeath to my daughter Susan R. the five following named Negroes, to wit, Peggy, Sally, Emily, Henry and Lucy, and my tract of land purchased of Samuel Oldham adjoining Brownsville containing thirty one acres, for and during her Celibacy or single state, and on the event of her marriage and her mother's approval thereof, then to her and her heirs forever—

I also give and bequeath to my son Robert the following named negroes, to wit, Nancy, Susan and Addeline and at his mother's death the Negro Boy Ruth and the one half of the proceeds of the sale of the tract of land purchased of Samuel McKinnis to him and his heirs forever—

In the name of God Amen. I Charles P. Salafino of the County of Wyandott and State of Louisiana being in such a state of health as to render it doubtful that a dissolution of this mortal part must take place in a very short time do make and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking all others in manner and form following to wit:

In the first it is my wish that the growing crop now on hand shall be furnished and the Cotton Crop, and such other perishable as I may possess at my death, not including the present growing crop of Corn & fodder which is to be reserved for the use and support of my wife and her family to consist of herself and son Garland & Robert if she should so choose, and probably my daughter Susan, and not herein specifically divided to be sold in such manner and on such terms as my executor or to be named may think proper and from the proceeds of said sale all my just debts paid, and the balance, if any, to be laid out in improvements for my wife and son Garland's accommodation on a tract of land which I wish shall be purchased for him my son Garland.

In the second place it is my wish, will and desire, and hereby will and bequeath to my wife Louisa the four following negroes, to wit, Hannah, Mary, Ruth and George the younger, my riding horse, and three other horses namely, one a gray named Charles, a bay horse named Roebuck and one filly two years old, the Carriage or Buggy & harness, the entire growing crop of Corn & fodder, and all my stock of every description, One Yoke of Oxen & Wagon, two plow and set of gear two pole axes & six hoes.

It is my will that my wife and family of the mentioned already named shall remain in the possession of the premises now occupy and reside upon until January in the year of our Lord 1839, in order that my son Garland may go to school at least two seasons, and in order that the mean time provision may be made for him and in the mean time provision there after as it is my most anxious wish that they shall live and remain together during their joint lives. The property is devised to her to be for and during her natural life and then to go as herein after devised. In the third place I will & bequeath to my son John Edwin my Negro woman Rancy, and the sum of eleven hundred dollars in money from the proceeds of the sale of my lands in Virginia to him and his heirs forever.

Having heretofore given to my daughter Julia five negroes and a lot in Brownsville, with other things not necessary here to name I shall devise nothing to her.

I will and hereby give and bequeath unto my son Charles P. the tract of land on which I at present reside containing fifty five acres with all its appurtenances to my negro man George and after the death of my wife, my negro woman Mary to him and his heirs forever.

I further will and bequeath to my daughter Susan R. the five following named Negroes, to wit, Peggy, Sally, Emily, Henry and Lucy, and my tract of land purchased of Samuel Oldham adjoining Brownsville containing thirty one acres, for and during her Celibacy or single state, and in the event of her marriage and her mother's approval thereof, then to her and her heirs forever.

I also give and bequeath to my son Robert the following named negroes, to wit, Nancy, Susan and Adeline and at his mother's death the Negro Boy Ruth and the one half of the proceeds of the sale of the tract of land purchased of Samuel Oldham to him and his heirs forever.

I give and bequeath to my son Garland my three negroes, to wit, Booker, Tennessee & her child Amanda and at his mother's death the negro woman Hannah and the land herein devised to be purchased for him by my executors, to him & to his heirs forever.

It is my will and desire that my wife shall give to whomsoever she may choose the negro boy George herein before devised to her, either in her last will and testament or other will as she may think proper.

It is my will and direction to my executors and they are hereby empowered and authorized, as soon as may be convenient after my death to sell the tract of land purchased of Samuel Dickins on credit if necessary and the proceeds, in two equal portions laid out in two tracts of land, the one for my son Robert S. and the other for my son Garland in some other neighborhood.

It is my further will and desire and so bequeath and devise that all the negroes herein devised ^{and} to my son Robert S. and Garland shall be and remain in the possession of my wife for the joint use, support and benefit of her and the said Robert S. & Garland until each of said boys shall arrive at the age of twenty years and as each shall attain that age he shall receive the negroes herein devised to him. In relation to the devise of the fiftyfive acre tract of land to my son Charles P. I have further to will, that he shall at any time after my death have the control of said land, timber &c. without restraint, save the houses, which are to be occupied by my wife as aforesaid.

I finally appoint my two sons, John Edwin and Charles P. and friend Will. H. Loving Executors of my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal in the presence of the subscribing witnesses this the third day of September A.D. 1836
