Edward Williams of the County of Maryland & State of Tennessee, being mindful of death, knowing that it certain & life uncertain & life uncertain, I do hereby give & bequeath my mind & memory, but in a weak and sickly state of health. Do on this eighth day of July in Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred & thirty five, make Ordain, constitute and appoint this instrument of writing my last Will & Testament, in manner & form following, to wit, -

First I give and recommend my immortal soul to Almighty God who gave it. Next I give my body to the dust of the Earth to be immediately (after death) decently entialed at discretion of my surviving friends -

As to what worldly property God in his Providence has been pleased to put into my possession -

I give & bequeath to my living wife during her natural life, one hundred acres of land including the house where I now live, and about twenty six acres of cleared land, beginning on my ~~land~~ boundary line at a point so that running West will be on the first fence North of the lane, then with said fence to the first fence running North & South, thence South, to the first apple tree row, thence with said row to the River, likewise I give, to my wife forever my Negro woman named Rizza & what increase she may have after my death, also two beds & furniture, three head of Cattle her choice, and as many sows and pigs as she may choose, a barrel horse named Tom - all the Kitchen furniture (except two large Kettles) which is only for life also one plough & harness. During her natural life and that only, my Negro man named Daniel & two boys named James & Alfred -

As to my son Edward provided to this date I have given all that I thought my duty required me to give him & my daughter Elizabeth I have given all, except a note given by Peter Sugg to me which note I give to -

Edward Williams of the County of Maryland & State of Tennessee, being mindful of death, knowing that it certain ^{my} life uncertain & life uncertain, I do on this eighth day of July in Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred & thirty five, Make Ordain, Constitute and appoint this instrument of writing my last Will & Testament, in manner & form following, to wit; —

First I give and recommend my immortal soul to Almighty God who gave it. Next I give my body to the dust of the Earth to be immediately (after death) decently interred at discretion of my surviving friends — As to what worldly property God in his Providence has been pleased to put into my possession —

I give & bequeath to my loving wife during her natural life, one hundred acres of land including the house where I now live, and about twenty six acres of cleared land, beginning on my East boundary line at a point so that running West will be on the first fence North of the lane, then with said fence to the first fence running North & South, thence South to the first apple tree row, thence with said row to the River, Likewise I give, to my wife forever my Negro woman named Rizza & what increase she may have after my death, also two beds & furniture, three head of Cattle her choice, and as many sows and pigs as she may choose, a sorrel horse named Tom. all the Kitchen furniture (except two large Kettles) which is only for life also one Blough & harness. During her natural life and that only, my Negro man named Daniel & two boys named James & Alfred —

As to my son Edward previous to this date I have given all that I thought my duty required me to give him & my daughter Elizabeth I have given all, except a note given by Peter Lugg to me which note I give her the benefit of —

My son John in addition to what I have already given him I give him one of the Kettles above mentioned. Likewise a boy belly & her increase (after the death of my wife). My son Seth the whole of the Land that I am now in possession of, and one of the above mentioned Kettles. My daughter Edney Mitchell I give all she has now in possession. But to her son Columbus Greene Mitchell I give (after the death of my wife) my Negro boy Alfred. Likewise (after the death of my wife) I give my daughter Edney Mitchell my Negro Man Daniel. My Negro boy James (after the death of my wife) I give to my son John's son Jesse. My daughter Nancy Crawford I give all she has in possession and all of what may arise from the proceeds of a sale of what property I have hereby not bequeathed after paying all my just debts.

I do hereby constitute, nominate & appoint my son Edward Williams my sole Executor & I do enjoin it on him accurate & religiously to execute this my last Will & Testament according to the true intent & meaning thereof.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal the day & year above written signed, sealed & acknowledged

Waynes County Court } November Term 1837

In the name of God Amen
I, Samuel Strickly of the County of Waynes and State of Tennessee being of perfect mind & memory do make and publish this my last will and testament on the twenty seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven, in manner and form following, that is, I commit my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the earth from whence it came in hope of a glorious resurrection through the merits of Jesus Christ.
And as to my worldly goods that it has pleased God to bless me with, I dispose of as follows (to wit), I leave unto my beloved wife Elizabeth the whole of my estate both real and personal during her natural life, or widowhood

Item 1st
I give and bequeath unto my Children William Samuel, Molly (the wife of Isaac Croome) and Susan in addition to the property heretofore given them the sum of fifty cents each

Item 2nd
I give and bequeath unto my son Richard twenty seven dollars at the death of his mother.

Item 3rd
I give and bequeath unto my daughter Nancy wife of Joel Campbell one Cow & calf one bedstead and furniture which I now deliver

Item 4th
I give and bequeath to my son Noah one half of my land and one third of my personal estate after the death of my wife.

Item 5th
I give and bequeath unto my son James the other half of my land and one third of my personal estate after the death of my wife, if either my son Noah or James should die it is my will that the other should inherit the land

Item 6th I do hereby appoint my beloved wife Elizabeth my Sole Executrix to this my last will & testament and do authorize her further should she become dissatisfied to sell my lands above given to my sons Noah & James and appropriate the moneys arising therefrom to the purchase of land to be divided as before mentioned between my two sons Noah and James, furthermore if she thinks proper to give my son Michael something more of my personal Estate it is my she should do so.

Item 7.
I give and bequeath unto the Children of my son William one white horse, one heifer and nineteen head of hogs which property I purchased under execution and left in his possession.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal to this my last will and testament on the day and year above written in presence of us
