The non-Copative will of Pascal J. Tweedy of the County of Haywood, State of Tennessee, who died on the 25th of November in the year of our Lord, 1832 in said city at his own residence and of his last sickness, and which is as follows, to wit;

I, Pascal Tweedy do make this my last will and testament there being no form to draw me a written will, I do give and bequeath to my beloved Martha Elise aboth Tweedy all the property of whatever description of a personal nature after the payment of my just debts and as will upon you, Thos. W. Pugh and John H. Stewart to witness the same and bear testimony of the facts.

We, the above named Thos. W. Pugh and John H. Stewart make oath that the said Pascal Tweedy called upon us to witness his non-copative will in his last sickness at his own residence in said city of Haywood on the 25th of November, 1832. And that he bequeathed his property as set forth in the foregoing statement and requested us to bear witness of the fact and we further state that we are acquainted with the said Pascal J. Tweedy and had been for some time previous to his death and believe him to be at the time of making the said will of sound mind and capable of making a just distribution of his property.

I, William Boyd, formerly of the County of Mecklinburg, State of Virginia, but now of Haywood County, State of Tennessee, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say, I leave unto my beloved wife Frances Boyd, after my just debts are paid all my estate both real and personal, and everything else that I may have or may be entitled to, during her natural life only, and after her death to be divided among my children and grandchildren herein after mentioned, to wit, Alexander Boyd-William B. Boyd-James Boyd-Rob't. Boyd, Charles H. Boyd, Harriet Pickett, Lucy Smith, Alfred Boyd, Thomas G. Boyd, Willford Boyd and Mary T. Williams, William B. Williams, Mildred L. Williams and Fielding Williams, children of my deceased daughter Frances P. Williams, wife of Fielding Williams, but in making the above distribution it is to be perfectly understood, and it is my wish and my will that the portion of my estate personal as well as real which I have already given or may hereafter give to anyone and each of my children above mentioned shall be accounted for as so much of their patrimony received, which patrimony so received, my executors will find charged in my private memorandum book to which reference is to be made and those of my children and grandchildren-the grandchildren to take as their mother would have taken above named and have not or shall not before my death receive any of my estate or not as much as the one who has received the largest portion, and to receive an amount equal to the one who may have received the most, that is in the first place each shall be made equal, and then the balance of my estate real and personal to be equally divided amongst my children and grandchildren above named, the grandchildren to take only a child's part, that is that portion which their mother Frances P. Williams would have been entitled to had she have lived, which child's part is to be equally divided between my above mentioned grandchildren, having already given my daughter Elizabeth T. Read her portion of my estate. I hereby bequeath to her one dollar and it is my will and wish that she should not have or take any more of my estate either real or personal. I give unto my daughter Jane Read one dollar-having already given a portion of my estate, and it is my wish and will that she shall not have or take any more of my estate either real or personal.-I give unto my Granddaughter Ann S. Good, one dollar having given unto her mother in her lifetime a portion of my estate and it is also my wish and will that she shall not take or have any portion of my estate either real or personal. I give unto my wife full liberty and power to give unto such of my children and grandchildren above mentioned as are to inherit my estate whatever she may choose of my estate to any of my children or grandchildren, who by this my will are to inherit my estate. So as to make the share of those who

State of Tennessee
 Haywood County In obedience to an Order of Court for the County aforesaid (which is herewith certified) appointing us to audit & settle the accounts of Paul P. Kelly, administrator on the estate of Joshua Kelly, Dec'd., we have taken the same into consideration and on a careful examination find the balance to the same administration by the said estate to the amount of $ hundred & seventy eight Dollars & fifteen cents agreeable to the above account as it stands stated; the administrator further represents that he has paid off and taken up a bond for one hundred dollars which he has lost or misplaced so that he can't now produce as a voucher also an account due for blacksmith work to the amount of between four & five Dollars which is not included in this account and which he will claim on a final settlement. Given under our hands 12th day of Sep. term Anna Don, 1835.

I, William A. Morrison of the County of Haywood and State of Tennessee being in my proper mind and in the fear of God, "Amen." Do proceed to make the following distribution of my property. Article the 1st—I will to my wife Lucy Morrison my tract of land whereon I am now living during her natural life or widowhood and if she Lucy Morrison should marry to have one-third of the above mentioned land during her lifetime and at her death to be equally divided among all my children.

Ar. 2nd—I will to my wife all the property consisting of horse, cattle, sheep and hogs, after my debts is paid during her life. Art. 3rd—I will to all of my children one bed and furniture each. Art. 4th—I will to my eldest daughter Nancy when she should marry or come of age one gray filley, also my other three daughters Elizabeth, Margaret and Susan to each have an equivalent to make their portion equal with my eldest daughter.

I want all my notes calling for money to be collected, for the purpose of paying my just debts, whenever Daniel Koonce makes payment for his land, I wish him to have a good and sufficient title, also Eli Harris and John Grace when they make payment. It is my will that they should give up my bonds and take Brown's bond or deed. It is my will that my wife Lucy Morrison have all the household and kitchen furniture, and everything else her life time, and at her death to be equally divided amongst all my children, the privilege of selling anything or distributing of it as she may think proper
